

Introduction

A MUST READING

For better understanding of the bases and principles of the solemn task of translating The Qur'an, whose diction is absolutely unique, i.e. very rational and all-around comprehensive, reading of this Introduction is a must, or at least Sections: 7 and 34-40 thereof. Yes, it may be a bit long (37 pages) but necessary and surely not verbose.

To begin with, we point to the well-known fact that every messenger of Allah was Allah-empowered by unique miracles suitable for his time and people. For example: Moses' era was magic-mired, and his rod had outdone the ultimate magic of that era. In Jesus' time it was "medicine-prevalent," and Jesus' Allah's empowered capacity to cure the leprous, the blind and even enliven the dead, all were testaments to his miraculous abilities, abilities unavailable to any other human being. So during Mohammad's (SAWS) epoch, Arabic language reached its zenith of epical maturity and display in terms of poetry and rhetoric. And here comes an orphan who lost his father at very early age, Mohammad (SAWS), and who is analphabet (illiterate) and surely not a poet, suddenly becoming the ultimate master of the Arabic language, unparalleled and unmatchable by anyone else.

Arabic is the language of The Qur'an. And it is The Qur'an that challenged the Arabs to match it in any way, form, or shape. They did not and could not rise to the challenge. So, "The Qur'an and its unique language" remain as the everlasting miracle for Mohammad (SAWS) to the end of time. Modern sciences keep proving the veracity of The Qur'an as such sciences develop and reach newer and confirmed heights.

So based on the above, it is the language of The Qur'an that was, is and will always be the factor which matters the most, as it veils future miracles. So, it is most imperative to adhere to the verbatim translation of The Qur'an in translating The Qur'an.

Hence, this translation is unique, in that it is totally new. It is unprecedented in form, contents, or characteristics. For the first time in the history of translation of The Qur'an a strict adherence to its verbatim, i.e. meticulously observing it. All others without exception, have remarkably ignored the verbatim translation of The Qur'an, through managed editorialization. Thus they had effected to unintentionally annul the greatest and most everlasting value and miracle of The Qur'an, i.e. its language! For it is the language of The Qur'an which bears and constantly manifests the multiple miracles in all fields of human endeavors and knowledge throughout the history of mankind. So this translation fastidiously adhered to its diction, even in mood and format. This translation relied on Allah's help first and on myriads of linguistic books (lexicons, distinctive meaning of each word, Qur'anic grammar and diction, and their implications), numerous books of interpretations and explanations of The Qur'an, many books discussing The Qur'an and its various aspects. Also it included volumes of syntactical inflection of The Qur'an. Last but not least utmost efforts were exerted to ensure that: since The Qur'an is perfect all-around, and that it is unique, sacred and supreme, so surely no editorialization of any kind was entertained. Hence no addition to, no deletion from, and no alteration of any part of its text is punctiliously maintained; thereby safeguarding its integrity maximally.

Ar-Rahma'ne indicates favor and help, clemency and generosity, goodwill and mercy to all Allah's creatures (including even the atheists) in this world. However it is used when exhortation by admonition or reprimand are called for. Moreover, associated with and simultaneous to such exhortation is a reminder that Ar-Rahma'ne implies hope, help, favor, and goodwill-mercy towards the one or ones being exhortated by such admonition. On the other hand the word "Ar-Rahee'me" = "الرحيم" can be shared, as in the use to describe anyone who is "multitudinous mercy giver." See the Lexicon attached to this Translation.

The Qur'an is the only single most: rational, authentic, reliable, credible, error-free, and unaltered (in any way, form or shape) divine Book on the face of the Earth. The various natural sciences, each in its field of factual (versus hypothetical) endeavors, overwhelmingly supports it with every new “discovery,” as such sciences progress over time. All other books, i.e. without exception, do have errors, omissions, contradictions, inconsistencies, irreconcilable differences or all of the aforesaid,¹⁹ and clearly cannot claim such a lofty-hallmark or scientific-support over the millennia. The Qur'an is the only infallible Book of divine-guidance. The Qur'an is firmly and cordially suitable for the entire humanity and its history, i.e. all peoples, all places, and all times. It contains vivid descriptions of all the principles of all the good, the bad in the Earth, and everything it contains as well as “how” to deal with it all, in the most rational and scientific ways. The Qur'an's thrust and tenor may be stated as follows: (1) generosity and honor from Allah to all of mankind. (2) An effective and enforceable plan for just, peaceful and cooperative living among all of mankind as a whole. (3) The Qur'an conclusively affirms: Islam is the religion which should be voluntarily embraced by all peoples, as no other religion would be acceptable to Allah in the hereafter. The Qur'an unambiguously states:

“And whoever yabtaghey ([he] earnestly-quests) other than [the] Islam (as) a religion, so never (to be) accepted from [him] and [he] (is) in the Hereafter” of the losers.” (S3:85).

The Qur'an categorically emphasizes: “No coercion in [the] religion” (S2:256). This fact is among its conspicuous hallmarks. In short The Qur'an is a treasure of all treasures for the good and rescue of mankind in this world and for salvation for those who accept The Qur'an in the Hereafter.

The praise is for Allah and the thanks are for so many Muslim scholars who had over the millennia, spared no effort to study and explain The Qur'an in multitudes of ways and in the minutest of details, including comprehensively counting its: Aya'te (statements), words and letters. All the aforesaid works are in Arabic. And some non-Muslim scholars also had left their remarkable imprints in this sphere. And amazingly Muslim and non-Muslim scholars so far had (I am sorry to say) failed/defaulted to produce a precise textual, i.e. verbatim, translation of The Qur'an in any language. By textual translation I mean a translation devoid of any: addition to/ deletion from/ alteration of its diction in any way, kind, shape or form, including its word formulation, e.g.: passive, active, intensive, infinitive, adjectives, genders, nouns, etc.

A book as above described, even post September 11, 2001 is not available in a precise verbatim translation! So that everyone will know what its diction exactly says in full.

If someone had reported that someone said so and so and if a reporter had paraphrased the speaker, the speaker or his opponents would openly challenge the reporter with respect to the verbatim aspect of the speaker's statement. And rightly so. However, in the case of The Qur'an its sacred diction had been paraphrased, and rephrased with significant additions to, deletions from and even alterations of its diction, including giving unintentional exact opposite meaning of what it says! In fact all heretofore known “translations” are rather inadequate and highly flawed. Cognizant of the fact that such “translations” are not anywhere close to the exact text of The Qur'an, so they called such translations as: “Translation of the Meanings of the Quran.” Such categorization is, sorry to say, unintentionally rather presumptive. As strictly speaking “meanings” of The Qur'an are multitudes, cumulative and constantly augmenting, depending on the current scientific advancement. So it is impossible to comprehensively encompass them in even multiple compendiums. So any of such "translations" is clearly not a reflection of any one of those multitudes. In fact such "translations" are personal explanations by the translator, and a very flawed explanation, because the translator did not really and truly have deep and sufficient understanding of the Arabic vocabulary of The Qur'an nor any clue as to the: "tongue-Arabic" or "rule Arabic," as stated in The Qur'an. Also they all have a confused understanding between "Qur'an-Arabic" and The Qur'an in "tongue-Arabic." As to the conventional meanings of certain words, as defined by Allah's great Messenger, Mohammad (SAWS) they all had no choice but to abide by it. After all is said, anyone would be hard pressed to find one sentence of two words or more in any of those "translations" which precisely corresponds to the exact text of The Qur'an. This is rather striking and most astounding, yet not heeded by most! But I am sure eventually truth shall prevail.

¹⁹ In this connection the reader is highly urged to read the Introduction to the 1971-Version of the King James Version of the Bible and what thirty-two Christian scholars assisted by fifty different denominations of Christendom world wide, and who worked for ten years, 1961-1971, and after having spent a budget of fifty five million U.S dollars to “clean” up the language of the Bible and what they finally had to say about their mission. In summary: they left the Bible as is, with all its flaws intact, as nothing that they could do about it.

May Allah reward all of those translators who had endeavored to their best to produce their works, however flawed and inadequate those works surely are. Nevertheless that was their best possible. So they should be thanked. But their works must be corrected, as we are dealing with Allah's Speech for the good of this world, its contents and salvation in the Hereafter.

Currently The Qur'an is available in inadequate/flawed interpretive translations which clearly unintentionally do to The Qur'an multitudes of injustices and are *amiss, vis-à-vis its real text.*²⁰ This simply is not acceptable, given such an enormously vital and great Book.

The present work I am pursuing, Allah willing, will remedy the aforesaid major and long-standing shortcomings. May Allah provide His divine-guidance for this translator of this enormous task regarding this great, in fact the greatest Book ever, Amen.

To begin, let me dispose of, or I should say dismiss once and for all, a long standing myth at worst or a misunderstanding at best, among a good number of Muslims and even highly educated non-Muslims who dealt with The Qur'an one way or another and apparently never bothered to verify such a myth/misunderstanding. The myth/misunderstanding is that The Qur'an "is untranslatable" or "should not be translated." So, perhaps this is one contributing factors, among others why there is not, until now a good verbatim translation of The Qur'an. For a while I tried to find the origin of such a myth/misunderstanding victimizing so many peoples who should know better, understand better, and reason better. When proponents of such a myth/misunderstanding are asked to provide a proof to support their claim, they become nonplused, and subsequently ramble, sometimes with gibberish.

It is a well-known fact that the great Messenger of Islam (SAWS) had his translator, Zayd Ibn Thabit, who translated the Messenger's (SAWS) messages to the various leaders of his Time. Zayd Ibn Thabit had to learn the languages of the Persians, the Romans, the Ethiopians, the Coptic and even the Hebrews, in order to verify the Jewish quotations of The Torah, as they were/are notorious for misquoting. There is no true or a good Hadeeth, purporting that translation of The Qur'an is disallowable. The reason for such non-existence of such a Hadeeth is that it would be irrational. Clearly, irrationality is absolutely antithetical to the nature of Islam, its Messenger (SAWS) or The Qur'an, as all are of the most sound rationality and good common sense for all to appreciate. Thus, The Qur'an, the true Word of Allah, should be presented in the precisest possible translation to every living language, as Muslims are commanded to peacefully and with utmost wisdom invite all peoples to embrace Islam on voluntary bases. So how could intelligent people embrace Islam and be fully aware of it without reading its most vital Book, The Qur'an? Such a reading would best be in their own language, or a most authentic and precise verbatim translation. And sequel to that everyone will know that to worship Allah by The Qur'an such worship must be rendered in Arabic, the original language of The Qur'an. Hence, there is no, as there could not be, any rationale for the myth/ misunderstanding to continue.

²⁰It is a matter of fact, liked or disliked by anyone, that the English language over the last three centuries or so is the dominant language in the world. There was, there is and there will be no excuse for the Muslims, especially the Arab-Muslims not to translate The Qur'an in a most befitting way.

However for the task at hand, perhaps the best thing to begin with is to quote the following good Hadeeth in which Prophet and Messenger of Allah, Mohammad (SAWS) said:

نمط لترجمة نصية (Textual/verbatim translation version)

”نُصِّرَ الله امرءاً سمع مقالتي فوعاها ثم نقلها كما سمعها، لربما ناقل فقه لمن هو أفقه منه“ (حديث صحيح).

A. Brightened Allah a [he-]human²¹ [he] heard my statement then [he] cognized/retained²² it^w; afterwards [he] conveyed it^w as [he] heard it^w; Surely possibly a conveyor of a *Feq'hen*²³ ([he] conveying it) for whom [he] has more Feqh than him.”

True *Hadeeth*²⁴ (contents in parenthesis are added).

نمط لترجمة بتصرف (Managed translation version)

B. “May Allah please a person who had heard my statement, understood it and conveyed it verbatim, perhaps to some one of a greater understanding”

The above are two translation versions of the same Hadeeth-statement. Version (A) is emphatically faithful to the integrity of the text, and version (B) is a managed translation, i.e. adding to and/or deleting from it or paraphrasing it to facilitate its understanding. Proponents of version (B) surely contend that it conveys the “message” more readily to the common reader. They hurriedly add: version (B) not only it facilitates but it encourages more Qur'an readership among the populace, which in turn ultimately may, just, may, make more converts to Islam. Clearly the intention is great. But the point is it does not comply with the above Hadeeth.

In fact there is a more illustrative Hadeeth. It is the Hadeeth for sleeping, which Mohamad (SAWS) taught it to one of his companions, in part it says:

“...and Your Prophet which You had sent.”

When the companion repeated the Hadeeth, to ensure his memorization of it, he said: “...and Your Messenger which You had sent.” Here Mohammad (SAWS) interrupted and said: “...and Your Prophet which You had sent.” See Hadeeth Al-Bokhari 247.

Returning to version B, there are numerous disadvantages to version (B), here is a short list:

- It is emphatically unfaithful to the integrity of the text, through “editorial” additions, deletions or paraphrasing. Such unfaithfulness is surely unacceptable.
- It surely is unequivocally presumptive, i.e. such translation unabashedly alters the original text.
- The texts of The Qur'an and the Hadeeth are either divine or divinely inspired, and thus are infallible. They are just and faultless for all peoples, all places and all times to come till the end of time. Therefore, no individual or group can claim to possess the divine foreknowledge to fathom the serious consequences of any alteration of the text over time in any way form or shape, including the formulation of the Qur'anic words/phrases.

²¹ The word “المراء” is exactly “the he-human.” It is not the same as (a) “الإنسان”=the human or (b) “الرجل” = could mean: (1) the man who matured or (2) he who walks on two feet; or (c) “الشخص”= (1) the male human; or (2) a human specter, male or female, seen from afar, day or night, (3) a human of a specific entity, a male or a female entity, (4) the body of a human when standing. See الهادي، للكرمي، أو اللسان أو التاج

²² The word “وعى” has a double meaning: (1) cognized and (2) retained. In this context both are needed.

²³ The word Feqh is an Arabic word that does not have English equivalent in terms of Sharey'ah. However, in general it means deep understanding. But, in terms of Sabrey'ah it means the deep understanding of the Sharey'ah Laws, the Hadeeth, and the personal capacity to discover and derive newer meanings and applications beyond the apparent textual meaning or meanings of a given Hadeeth or Ayah for various situations.

²⁴ Hadeeth is the tradition, or the verbatim statement of the Prophet and Messenger of Islam, or his actions, or the statement or action of some one else that the Prophet did approve or did not disapprove.

- (d) As Time progresses newer meanings do come to light from those texts, a fact which will be lost if the texts are altered. Such a phenomenon happened during the life time of Mohammad (SAWS) and will continue to happen to the end of Time.
- (e) Any immediate advantage that might be attained, sequel to its textual alterations, is certainly not worth the damage imparted by such an alteration, especially on the long term.
- (f) Clearly the originators of both The Qur'an and the Hadeeth are fully qualified to determine whether or not a given text requires any alteration to "fix" it for the best-way to convey it or convey its intended message. Had there been a need for such a requirement the need would have been fulfilled to begin with by the originators.

What must be remembered with respect to the texts of The Qur'an and the Hadeeth is that both are lofty and perfect all around. Therefore, at least to their minimum level all peoples must ascend or try to ascend rather than subject the text of either to any stooping down to a common or base level for the sake of "more readership."²⁵ Clearly some readers are sufficiently astute or say are endowed with the proper capacity to read and understand such texts. Some others may not be so endued. This is quite natural. So, those who are not so endued should ask those in position of knowledge. For Allah directs all of us to ask if or when we do not know: Allah says: "so let-ask you^z the Thekre's (Qur'an's/Book's) folks^w if you^c were not knowing." (S16:43). Clearly we do not hesitate to ask people of knowledge in their field of endeavor. Similarly if someone does not clearly understand the Qur'anic diction or the Hadeeth parlance, then it is perfectly normal, in fact it is strongly recommended, for such a person to ask the proper people in their fields of endeavor, as there are multiple specialists in the Qur'anic text and the Hadeeth parlance.

1. Newer meaning or application of Hadeeth by Feqh; also The Qur'an imparts newer perspectives/meanings over time

The above-mentioned honorable Hadeeth exhorts/urges us to convey the statements of Allah's Messenger (SAWS) verbatim. Without doubt, a Hadeeth is (wisdom), hidden or apparent, known by the majority or just a few. Therefore, conveying Allah's Messenger (SAWS) Hadeeth verbatim to others is most vital. That is because there could be another scholar who is more capable of discovering/discerning/deriving newer ideas and applications in the Hadeeth being conveyed not apparent to the conveyer. Time and again this proved to be true.

Similarly, with respect to any Ayah, the unfolding of time and the progress of human scientific knowledge will surely uncover and impart newer meaning or meanings of the Ayah or Ayat (plural for Ayah), as had happened and continues to happen time and again over the years. There are myriads of illustrative examples in The Qur'an as shall be evident later on, or from the study of The Qur'an to prove this case. Often, the newer meaning or meanings of certain type of Ayat (Section 2 next) expounded by a scholar at a given time may or may not be readily acceptable/understandable in his current era.

2. Two types of Ayat, Muhkamat (clear, eternally unchanging), and Mutasha'beah (allegorical, and imparting newer meaning over time)

The Qur'an is Allah's Speech. Obviously Allah possesses foreknowledge of the past, the present and the future alike. Therefore, Allah is not encumbered by the elements of time, space or the experiences that derive from either or both combined. Thus, Allah's Speech is eternally and forever right and correct. Allah's Speech is the right and the truth. Given the aforesaid facts and Allah's saying, that there are two types of Ayat in The Qur'an:

﴿ هُوَ الَّذِي أَنْزَلَ عَلَيْكَ الْكِتَابَ مِنْهُ آيَاتٌ مُحْكَمَاتٌ هُنَّ أُمُّ الْكِتَابِ وَأُخَرُ مُتَشَابِهَاتٌ ﴾ آل عمران: 7

²⁵ In fact The Qur'an in its Arabic format is not, yes I say not, clearly understandable by most, yes most, present day Arab-Muslims let alone non-Arab-Muslims. This is very unfortunate fact. That is because overwhelmingly such Arab-Muslims had, for one reason or another and for a very long time now, forsaken communicating by means of proper formal Arabic.

“He Who descended on you^s The Book^x of it^x (are) Aya'tton^w (Qur'anic statements) Muhkamat^{w26} (firm/eternally unchangeable)^w they^y (are) The Book's mother;^w and others (which are) resemblers-she.^{ym}” (S3:7)

2A) The Muhkama'to (firm and eternally unchanging) Ayat.

The Muhkama'to are those Ayat that address: (a) The Singularity of Allah through the various messengers; (b) Define the Halal (the allowable) and the Haram (the disallowed) by the Sharey'ah Law, Islam. (c) How to worship Allah, according to the Sharey'ah Law. The Muhkama'to are categorical and informative statements. Hence, they are the bases (“Mother”) of The Book, firmly constructed and are everlasting, i.e. forever not subject to any change or newer interpretation. The Messenger (SAWS), his companions, and the scholars of the *Sunnah*²⁷ had thoroughly elaborated on the Muhkama'to; and since they are firm and everlasting, there is no need for any further discourse regarding them.

2B. The Ayato the Mutashabeha'to (allegorical/analogous, importers of newer meanings over time).

On the other hand the Ayato the Mutashabeha'to are allegorical/ analogous which impart different meanings over time. Although similar in so many aspects, yet each imparts a meaning or multiple meanings over time. They make up most of The Qur'an, for reasons discussed in Section 2C.

2C. The Ayato The Mutashabeha'to make up most of The Qur'an.

The Ayato the Mutashabeha'to are more numerous in The Qur'an, as Halal (that which is allowable), a direct favor from Allah to and for the humans, is more prevalent. In fact Allah SWT karrama ([He] generously/gratuitously bestowed countless boons/blessings upon and ennobled) Adam's sons and absolutely favored/preferred them over many of His other creatures. Allah says in The Qur'an:

﴿وَلَقَدْ كَرَّمْنَا بَنِي آدَمَ... وَفَضَّلْنَاهُمْ عَلَى كَثِيرٍ مِمَّنْ خَلَقْنَا تَفْضِيلًا﴾ الإسراء: 70

"And laqad (verily, already and affirmatively) karramna (We generously and gratuitously bestowed countless boons/ benefits upon and ennobled) Adam's sons.....and We favored/preferred them over many of whom^p We created *tafdheelan*²⁸ (absolute favor/preferment)." (S17:70).

3. To begin with consider Allah's creation of man.

3A. The Qur'an says: Allah created Adam directly with His Own [Both] Hands:

﴿...إِذَا خَلَقْتُ بِيَدَيَّ﴾ ص: 75

"...for what I created by My Both Hands"^w (S38:75)

When something is very dear/important to one, one attends to it personally, i.e. not delegate it to others. There is no greater boon/favor and ennoblement than Allah attending to man by creating him by His “Own [Both] Hands.”

3B. Also Allah created man in ahsa'ne (perfectest and beautifulest) stature:

﴿لَقَدْ خَلَقْنَا الْإِنْسَانَ فِي أَحْسَنِ تَقْوِيمٍ﴾ التين: 4

"Laqad (verily, already and affirmatively) We created [the] mankind in *ahsa'ne*²⁹ (perfectest and beautifulest) a stature". (S95:4)

3C. Allah erected/set and enlivened Adam by blowing in him directly of His Soul:

﴿سَوَّاهُ وَنَفَخَ فِيهِ مِنْ رُوحِي﴾ السجدة: 9

“...sawwaho ([He] erected/evened/ set him) and [He] blew in him of His Rou'he (Soul)^w” (S32:9).

3D. Allah ranked Adam rather high and ordered the angels to kowtow for him:

²⁶ See the Lexicon attached to this Translation for a detailed explanation..

²⁹ There is no English word for أحسن=ahsane! Both words perfectest and beautifulest are in their adjective sense!

﴿وَإِذْ قُلْنَا لِلْمَلَائِكَةِ اسْجُدُوا لِآدَمَ فَسَجَدُوا﴾ الكهف: 50

"And edh (when/since) said We for the angels: let-kowtow you^z for Adam; so they^z kowtowed." (S18:50).

3E. Allah made man as His vicegerent in Earth, with all attending responsibilities.

﴿وَإِذْ قَالَ رَبُّكَ لِلْمَلَائِكَةِ إِنِّي جَاعِلٌ فِي الْأَرْضِ خَلِيفَةً﴾ البقرة: 30

"And edh (when) said your^t Lord for the angels: verily I am making in the Earth^w a vicegerent^{x30}" (S2:30).

3F. Allah created and subjugated whatever in the Earth and the Heavens, altogether for His vicegerent, as attested for by the Ayat of The Qur'an:

﴿هُوَ الَّذِي خَلَقَ لَكُمْ مَا فِي الْأَرْضِ جَمِيعًا﴾ البقرة: 29

"He Who (had) created for you^b what (are) in the Earth^w together." (S2:29).

﴿وَسَخَّرَ لَكُمْ مَا فِي السَّمَاوَاتِ وَمَا فِي الْأَرْضِ جَمِيعًا مِنْهُ﴾ الجاثية: 13

"And [He] subjugated for you^b what (are) in the Heavens^w and what (are) in the Earth^w together from Him". (S45:13)

3G. Because in each person is a direct" blow" from Allah making-up (his/her) soul, thereby enabling each to have active capacity to:

(a) Obey Allah; (b) Disobey Allah; (c) Have full foreknowledge of the: (a) rewards or (b) punishments for one's deeds/says. That is he/she is a master of own deed/says, and therefore full bearer of the consequences, i.e. responsibility.

4. Based on the above (3A-3G) Allah established man of the Earth, deputized him to develop in it and develop the Earth, a huge responsibility. Allah says in The Qur'an:

﴿هُوَ أَنشَأَكُمْ مِنَ الْأَرْضِ وَاسْتَعْمَرَكُمْ فِيهَا﴾ هود: 61

"He established you^b from the Earth^w and *ista'amarakum*³¹ ([He] deputized you^b for development) in it^w;" (S11:61).

5. Allah wanted His vicegerent in Earth, as He deputized him for development in it, to voluntarily go for the everlasting hereafter, not the transitory-beguiling world. But unfortunately through the recalcitrance of a great many peoples, peoples of the secular-West, chose otherwise, clearly to their great eventual detriment.

It is worthy to note here that the glorious Ayat says: "in the Earth," while most, if not all, translate that as "on Earth" or "on the Earth." In fact "in" is the correct one, as it is scientifically more inclusive, as everything really and truly is in the Earth and not on it. Everything is within the physical landmass of it, including the multiple layers of its atmosphere. We walk on the land surface of the Earth; but we are in the Earth's atmosphere, like the fishes are in the sea. To be on the Earth one has to go above its atmosphere. This is a noteworthy modern scientific phenomenon The Qur'an so long ago had established this modern and scientific fact recently discovered. Another phenomenon:

6. Changing meanings of some words in The Qur'an through scientific progress!

﴿غَلَبَتِ الرُّومُ * فِي أَدْنَى الْأَرْضِ﴾ الروم: 2

"(Had been) worsted the Romans; in *adna*³² (near-by/lowest land of) the Earth^w"³³. (S30:2)

³⁰ The word "خليفة" means: (1) a vicegerent; (2) the one that replaced another who was before him. For example: Allah made each generation to follow or replace another. The word "خليفة" is a masculine and the "خليفة" is for intensification as in علامة. See تفسير البيضاوي وروح المعاني لـ الألوسي

³¹ That is He called on you to develop your selves and develop the region of your abode, and the Earth.

³² The word "adna" means: (1) near-by, (2) lower most land spot.

³³ The word "الأرض" could mean: the land or the Earth.

The above Ayah clearly states that the Romans were defeated in “adna” of the Earth. At the time, when this Ayah was revealed, the Arabic word “adna” was understood to be: “close or near-by.” However, linguistically the word also means lowest (with respect to altitude). Through modern science, which we now know, the specific place where the Persians had defeated the Romans (in 614-15 AC) is on a land which is below sea level and it is actually the lowest land surface (in terms of altitude) on the face of the Earth. Altitudes are measured starting with sea level to be zero. However, there are land surfaces of the Earth that are below sea level (e.g. in present day Holland and Jordan). Therefore, early in the 7th century AC, the above Ayah meant to the people of that time, the location where the Romans were defeated was on “the land close or near-by” was correct, because then the scientific altitude was not even known or knowable. Now, that is fourteen centuries later, the modern and scientific knowledge is that the Romans were defeated on a land that is lowest in terms of land surface and in terms of altitude. Of course, both meanings (the old and the new) are correct and valid. Clearly, only Allah, The Omniscient, can make such choice of words that could impart different meanings at different times yet are everlastingly right and correct, even if they assume totally unrelated aspects and contexts throughout the ages. The aforesaid proves the veracity and the divine nature of The Qur’an beyond any reasonable doubt. Such characteristic applies only to The Qur’an. And such can and does stand the tests of time and rational scrutiny.

6A. “dharrah’s” weight of good or evil shall be seen.

Another example is in Surat az-Zelzalah, Surah 99, (The Earthquake). This Surah contains two Ayat that say on the Day of Judgment all personal deeds will come in for accountability, no matter how tiny. The two Ayat speak of the tiniest weight imaginable that of a “dharrah” (baby ant/ atom/ speck of dust):

﴿فَمَنْ يَعْمَلْ مِثْقَالَ ذَرَّةٍ خَيْرًا يَرَهُ ۖ وَمَنْ يَعْمَلْ مِثْقَالَ ذَرَّةٍ شَرًّا يَرَهُ﴾ الزلزلة: 7-8

“So whoever [he] works a dharra'ten's^w (small ant's/ an atom's/ speck of dust)^w weigh (of) *khayran*³⁴ (desirable/ worthiness/ goodness) [he] sees it^x; and whoever [he] works a dharra'ten's^w weight (of) evil [he] sees it^x” S99:7-8

At the time of the Messenger and Prophet (saws), the smallest and tiniest known weight was that of a baby ant, in Arabic “dharrah.” However, at the present time the same identical word “dharrah” designates and stands for the word “atom.” Clearly the old and the new meanings of the word “dharrah” are not same, but still the overall meanings apply just as well in both cases. Thus, an old translation of the word “dharrah” would say the weight of a “baby ant.” And a current translation would say the weight of an “atom.” In both cases the translations, although different yet, would be correct and applicable. This clearly imparts the foreknowledge and miraculous nature of The Qur’an on linguistic as well as the scientific bases. No human being could have the foreknowledge of the facts or such a linguistic acumen.

The above Ayat imply two salient factors: (1) the meaning of an Ayah acquires additional newer meaning over time, although it retains the same identical text. (2) An Ayah of such a nature does prove the miraculous character of The Qur’an, as no other book can claim such a merit, proving that The Qur’an is definitely Allah’s Speech.

Devoid of any bias, any rational person would surely see that The Qur’an, in light of the above two examples, of which there are multitudes and multitudes of their similars in The Qur’an, individually or in combination with others like them, prove beyond any reasonable doubt that The Qur’an is the true Word of Allah. In modern times many scientists were simply amazed upon discovering in their fields of study how The Qur’an states fourteen centuries ago in most scientific and vivid terms their recent discoveries.

³⁴ The word “خيراً” = “khayran,” and grammatically inflected “khayren” or “kharon” all mean that which is desirable, of worthiness or goodness. Clearly charity, prayer, or any meritorious deed is surely “خير.”

7. Ultimate aim of any proper translation of The Qur'an should be adherence to the full verbatim or direct transliteration of the translated text.

Texts of The Qur'an or Hadeeth parlance besides being sacred bear apparent and hidden meaning(s), meanings which only elapse of time will reveal them. Thus, translating either one to another language, if the recipient language has the appropriate corresponding terms then a full verbatim translation is a must. If such correspondence is not available, a most likely situation, as the recipient language lacks the terms, then a direct transliteration is the only alternative. Why so? See 7A next for elaboration.

7A. Maintaining the sanctity and the integrity of the sacred/meanings packed texts.

When translating Qur'anic texts or Hadeeth to other languages, it is imperative to maintain the integrity of the text (in letter and spirit). That is not to engage in any addition to, deletion from, or alteration of their respective texts, through interpolation, or extrapolation (personal conjectural inferences, "editorials," commentaries or interpretations). Also translators must refrain from using adjectives or adverbs for nouns, transitive verbs for intransitive ones. As words of The Qur'an or the Hadeeth in the original text convey an apparent meaning and likely there is a hidden one too. Remember the Hadeeth for sleeping (D4 above) and how Allah's Messenger (SAWS) was emphatic vis-à-vis verbatim.

A word of cautionary reminder.

8. Hurdles impeding translation from the aspect of the Arabic language:

Before we proceed further, here is a word of caution and a reminder. The Arabic language is famous for its expressions of precision and exactness, eloquence and elegance, brevity and terseness, homogeneity and rhyme for adornment and proportion all are hallmarks of it. Also, figuration and substitution, analogy and parallelism, compensation and assimilation all are speech constructs ubiquitous in its literature. The aforementioned are only some examples describing how lofty and magnanimous, splendid and superb the Arabic formal diction is. The Qur'anic diction had elevated Arabic language to even far higher level of excellence and elegance. So to translate from formal Arabic to any other language is extremely difficult, but with patience, diligence and innovation it is not impossible.

9. Qur'anic diction is beyond replication, in any language.

9A. the above facts are among the reasons why Allah had challenged all the Arabs individually or collectively to produce even a small portion the like of The Qur'an (S17: 88), a challenge the masters of Arabic language had failed to meet. Thus, any translation could not be a replication of The Qur'an. Any translation will surely lose the exquisite givens of the captivating rhyme and elegant eloquence of such diction in its original Arabic.

9B. Following is one of multiple examples of Qur'anic brevity and terseness:

“Both were, [both] eating the food” S5:75 = المائدة: ٧٥ ﴿كَانَا يَأْكُلَانِ الطَّعَامَ﴾

In two words: “يَأْكُلَانِ الطَّعَامَ” The Qur'an replies profoundly and conclusively to those who claim that Jesus and his chaste mother, may Allah be pleased with both, are deities. The Qur'an says: “Both were [both] eating the food.” (In English “both” is redundant, but required in Arabic).

Consider the following facts:

- (a) Stating that “both were eating the food” is clean, mentionable and undeniable fact. However, (b) by inference/implication that means each had a need to (c) eat and thus (d) another need to (e) excrete, as both were real and perfectly normal alive humans.

So, both were (f) like the rest of the human beings, i.e. dependent on external factors for their subsistence. Hence, if they did not eat they would (g) perish.

Therefore, if they were “deities” (a) through (g) above would not apply to them.

9C. Thus, out of this beautiful terse Qur'anic expression, one can come to at least the aforementioned reasonable conclusions that are rather confounding to any reasonable claimer of deity for either Jesus or his chaste mother, May Allah be pleased with Jesus and his chaste mother. Amen.

10. Allah honored the Arabic language by choosing it for His Speech.

Arabic language is unlike other languages, in that it is conjugationally rational. From its verbal roots one can conjugate/inflect such roots to derive/form the desired verbs, adverbs, adjectives, nouns: passive or active, nouns for palaces or times of action, plural of paucity or multiplicity, etc, etc. Thus, Arabic language is rather terse and very descriptive. It is eloquent and elegant. So, Arabic language has special pre-requisites in format and construct. Because Allah honored the Arabic language by choosing it for His Speech to humanity; so when translating His Speech to any other language, the recipient language must be complemented and made to comply to The Arabic construct and format, in many respect, such as: “precedence and postponement”=“التأخير و التقديم”, as that changes the meaning. For example:

مواخر فيه = "...and[you^s]see the folka^x (ship/ships)^x plowers in it^x; (S16:14), or

فيه مواخر = "...and [you^s] see the folka^x (ship/ships)^x in it^x plowers"; (S12:35).

Another example is that of usage of particles of prepositions, such as: مع=with, or إلى=to, or ب=by. In Arabic such particles have vital explicative and significant implicative meanings.

Here is an illustration:

I secluded with the king. I secluded by the king. I secluded to the king.

With = the king and I are of equal ranks. Neither has power over the other.

By = I am of higher rank than the king, e.g.: I am his emperor.

To = I am of lower rank than the king, e.g.: I am his subject.

In fact, even a vowel could change the meaning. Consider: الحِمل =external load and الحمل (with a fatha on the ح =baby in the belly).

11. Hurdles impeding translation of The Qur'an vis-à-vis recipient language.

Additionally, there are hurdles vis-à-vis the recipient language, such as English, the subject of this translation. Among such hurdles is the fact that in the recipient language (English, for example) the corresponding precision and availability of vocabulary is not adequate, let alone sufficient in myriads and myriads of cases. (See Section 9 below, for elaboration).

Despite the above facts (Sections 1-7), we should try our best, by diligence, patience, and innovation to translate The Qur'an into other languages conveying what The Qur'an exactly and precisely says. Because all Muslims are duty bound to convey the precise message of The Qur'an; and a prerequisite for that is to put forth what The Qur'an exactly says in the precisest of terms. So we translate and/or transliterate (with parenthetical explanations), and supplement the recipient language of this magnanimous Qur'anic diction through hard-work and originality. See Section 39 to come, for suitable innovation and originality.

Finally, translation of The Qur'an is unlike any other translation. Clearly it cannot be, as stated earlier, a replica of The Qur'an in another language. But it should precisely conform to its verbatim, i.e. without any addition to, deletion from or alteration of its diction. So that others will know what The Qur'anic text precisely and exactly says explicitly and implicitly.

And now back to our main topic: the ultimate aim of translation of The Qur'an.

A Prelude

Translation= “ترجمة.” To translate means to precisely render a statement of a certain language into another language, with all the attending implications, inferences, connotations and denotations, etc. to the maximum extent possible. For example the Ayah of (S3:139):

﴿لَا تَهِنُوا وَلَا تَحْزِنُوا وَأَنْتُمْ الْأَعْلَوْنَ إِنْ كُنْتُمْ مُؤْمِنِينَ﴾ آل عمران: 139

“And let not *ta'beyno*³⁵ (you^s: weaken/love the world and have a dislike for death in the cause of Allah) and let not sadden you^z, while you^f (are) the a'alawna (uttermosts/uppermost-ones), if you^b were believers”.

³⁵ The word “تَهِنُوا” is rooted in “وَهْنٌ، أَوْ وَهَنٌ. فَوْهَنٌ أَيْ ضَعْفٌ، أَوْ صَارَ بِهِ وَهْنٌ”

والوهن هو الضعف وعدم القدرة على بذل الجهد. والوهن أيضاً، كما حدده صلى الله عليه وسلم، هو حب الدنيا وكرهية الموت في سبيل الله.

Interpretation= “تفسير” On the other hand it is to interpret or to explain, from for example: a traditional, personal, philosophical, or a general point of view, the meaning of a statement, which could even be in the same language. Taking the above identical Ayah translated interpretively with some personal overtones, it is rendered by some well-known “translators/scholars” as follows:

“So do not become weak (against your enemies), nor be sad, and you will be superior (in victory) if you are indeed (true) believers.”

This type of interpretive translation is discussed more elaborately in Example # 2 of Section 25 to come. Clearly such interpretive translation does not adhere to the integrity of the translated text nor really and truly says what the text states, denotes or connotes.

12. Interpolations are necessary, but to a bare parenthetical minimum.

Of course, translation may require interpolations, but only parenthetically by way of:

- (i) Inserting linguistic or even stylistic necessities (a word, or two, a prepositional article, or even short phrases) that are inevitable but distinctly manifested from the main text, by, for example (a) italicized parenthetical enclosure, (b) italicized transliteration or (c) an explanatory footnote, etc.
- (ii) Also, Arabic words have latent (hidden) pronouns and many words have inferential, implicative, denotative, or connotative intimations. For instance, take the word: “Kataba”=“wrote.” From the word “wrote” in English it is not possible to know who is the writer per se? In Arabic the writer is obvious. The writer is a “he,” not a she, not they, not it. So, in such a case the “hidden” pronoun must be indicated, in a square bracket and italicized, such as: [he], so that there is no room for any ambiguity as to the identity of the pronoun; because the entire Qur’an is free from any mistake/ambiguity whatsoever.
- (iii) Also, in order to maintain normal linguistic inferences and implications or even stylistic patterns or flows, parenthetical expressions are unavoidable. However, parentheses and their contents must be kept to the absolute minimums definitely not for personal interjections of interpretive contents as such contents when necessary belong to the footnotes.

13. Extrapolations should be marginal, and only for the footnotes.

Extrapolations are inferences/estimate by extending/projecting known information. So, all extrapolations are: (i) extraneous verbiage, except as needed in a parenthetical expression. In other words, the main text must not be tampered with in order to keep it free from such dictions, except of course as stated above.

- (ii) Qur’anic diction is unique and Hadeeth parlance is matchless, each is in a class by itself. Each is revered and revered for what it stands for. Each has deep and far reaching implications, in addition to the apparent designative text.

14. Clearly transliteration is an imperative improvisation to meet Allah’s diction in any translation, i.e. due to lack of corresponding terms

- A. Lack of subject agent. Of course, sometimes there is no corresponding word in English for the Arabic word to be translated. For example if one wants to say: “صدق,” the past tense verb for “said or told the truth,” There is a word in the English Dictionary: “trued,” but it has nothing to do with telling the truth per se. As “trued” means: to position (something) so as to make it balanced, level, or square, A different concept. Out of “صدق” we need to say: “صادق”=the subject noun, for he who told/said the truth, which in turn the word “صادق” does not exist in English per se. In English to say “صادق” you have to go in a roundabout way and say that who or he who tells/says the truth. Clearly such rendition is perhaps the best approximation.

وَوَهْنٌ أَيْ صَارَ وَهْنًا أَوْ وَهِنًا أَيْ ضَعِيفٌ لَا يَقْوَى عَلَى بَذْلِ الْجُحْدِ. لِذَلِكَ وَهَنَ وَ وَهْنٌ كُلُّ وَاحِدَةٍ تَوَصَّلَ الْمَعْنَى ذَاتَهُ. أَنْظِرِ الْهَادِي.

Therefore, the word “تَهْنُوا” linguistically has several meanings, relevant to us here are: “(1) weaken you. (2) You love the world and have a dislike for death in the cause of Allah’s cause.” In English there is no way to express the word “تَهْنُوا” in one word per se. Hence, “تَهْنُوا” is best rendered, in my opinion as indicated above.

However, it is an approximation that falls short of fully describing the subject agent “صادق,” as “صادق” is much more than that. As an illustration of the point, “that who or he who tells/says the truth” such an entity could be telling the truth once, but it is not his main trait for all the time. Because even the most notorious liar could tell/say the truth at least once, He is certainly not a “صادق” except at this particular time when he actually happened to be “صادق”. Of course the same applies to the verbs “أحسن,” “تصدق,” “أيقن,” and their respective subject nouns. Also “صبر” and its subject nouns of: “صبور,” “صبار,” and “مصطبر.” Similarly for words like: “خير,” “حسني,” “تقوى” and many others. When it comes to the “اسم المفعول”= objective noun such nouns are very, very rare to come by in English. Also consider the following:

- B. Lack of the appropriate verb. When it turns to be fortunate for the appropriate verb of a word to be available, often it is of the wrong grammatical construct. For example the verb is transitive and what is needed is an intransitive or vice versa. Thus, such apparent availability is only a mirage, as it is almost useless. See subsection C next.
- C. The circuitous rendition. Sometime what is needed is an appropriate verb or a verb-subject and all that is available are adjectives or adverbs or the inappropriate verbs. For example you want to translate:

﴿إِنَّ اللَّهَ لَا يَسْتَحْيِي أَنْ يَضْرِبَ مَثَلًا﴾ البقرة: 26

There is no word for the intransitive verb “يَسْتَحْيِي” in English. However, there is the word “ashamed,” which is really an “adjective,” or “embarrass,” “shame” or “discomfit” all are yes verbs but are transitive verbs, i.e. strictly or precisely speaking less than optimum, if not useless for such an application. The Qur’an is the most precise in expression. Thus, appropriateness and precision must be observed at all times and as much as possible by means of parenthetical prefixes/suffixes of words/phrases or transliterations (with parenthetical brief explanation) as a last resort.

Therefore, in cases as abovementioned and for additional reasons explained later, the Arabic word, which is not translatable, should be quoted in a transliterated form italicized and parenthetically explained or described by words or phrase. Obviously, what is in the parenthesis is not part of the main text but the translator’s own best rendition to convey the meaning of what was being transliterated. This is in addition to a footnote, if applicable, which may even be more helpful and elaborative.

15. Clearly textual is neither replicative nor literal translation.

Clearly, translation through preserving the textual content is neither a replication nor a literal translation. As replication is not possible even if it were to be done in Arabic language itself. And literal translation could become rather awkward and ludicrous, if not completely absurd or meaningless. To illustrate briefly and in passing, take the “literal translation” of this short sentence:

الرجل يأكل في بيته

The literal translation would be:

the man eats in house his.

The textual translation would be:

The man eats in his house.

Also in Arabic, the importance of “precedence-and-postponement”= “التقديم والتأخير” make big difference. For example:

A. هؤلاء أشدّ منهم بطشا = these (are) harder than them (in) seizing.

B. هؤلاء بطشا أشدّ منهم = these (in) seizing, (are) harder than them.

Version A emphasizes the “hardness” as it gets precedence in the text. Whereas Version B emphasizes the “seizing” for the same reason. So, in Arabic “التقديم والتأخير” could be rather vital at times and hence must not be hastily overlooked, especially regarding The Qur’an.

Therefore, translation is conforming to the precise text, i.e. without any addition to, deletion from or alteration of the exact text. The translator should strictly adhere to the integrity of the translated text, in letter and spirit of The Qur’an or the Hadeeth.

In order to adhere to this concept of “must-be-verbatim” or closest to that, it is necessary to improvise through parallelization, described in Section 13 next and innovative originality, discussed in Sections 39 to come later.

16. Parallelization is paramount, due to the enormity of the translated text

Parallelization(keepingparallel)with the texts, English to the corresponding Arabic, should be constantly sought as much as possible, i.e. in terms of the tenses, inflections, adjectives, adverbs, subject, objects, passive, active, intensive modes, transitive, intransitive verbs, etc. Consider the following illustrations:

- (i) For example: if the text says: “the strayers” the translator must stick to: “the strayers,” and not express that by saying “those who went astray” or some other rendition of that. Or, if the text says: “those who believe,” “those who believed.” The translator must stick to the same expression and not say “the believers,” instead. The vice versa is also true. If the text says: “the believers,” the translator must not change that to “those who believe,” or those who believed.” If the text says: “If you are believers,” the translator must not tamper with that by adding parenthetically (“if you are (truly) believers”). Believers are not the same as those who believe or believed. Just like the athlete is different than those who just get involved in athletics. Believers are those whose wont is a constant belief.
- (ii) Originators of The Qur’an and the Hadeeth both are fully capable to qualify their dictions/parlances if any qualifications were in order. Without doubt Allah has good foreknowledge of that and His messenger would surely be divinely-guided accordingly by Allah.
- (iii) Clearly the intensiveness of the mode of expression must be maintained and reflected. For example: if the Arabic text is in the intensive case (expressing energy, intensity, or frequency of action), such intensiveness must be reflected in the translated text. However, if the recipient language does not have a corresponding intensiveness, the translator must endeavor to reflect that intensiveness in the main text (parenthetically and in italics, differentiating it from the main text) by some qualitative word or even words as such intensiveness is inseparable essence of the text conveying rather vital information.

For example: “كاذب”=“Kadheb”=Liar and “كذاب”= “Kadh-dhab” or “كذوب”= “Kadhoob”=One who is a repetitive liar, or one who lies all the times. Clearly, “Kadheb”=liar, is not the same as “Kadh-dhab”= “Kadhoob.” The liar might have lied once, intentionally or not. But the “Kadhoob” is a constant or a repetitive liar. Thus, if the text says one or the other, the translator must respect the integrity of the text and reflect exactly what the text says. That is because the implications could be far reaching, and yet may be unknown to the translator. When it comes to intensiveness of most verbs the English language is rather lacking. In Arabic intensiveness could impart a different meaning besides the emphasis.

(iv) Certain Arabic words have mutuality or simultaneity of their meanings. For example: “خادع”=“Kha’de’a”=deceiver and “مخادع”= “Mokhade’a”= he who is involved in simultaneous deception, that is deceiving while being deceived. Such meanings must be reflected in any translation. Thus, when the Arabic word is “Mokha’de’a” and if translated as simple deceiver=“Kha’de’a,” such translations is not only an under-translation but also a misleading one at that. Here again the use of a verb of “mutuality” nature has implications that are perhaps unknown to the translator, but it definitely is the most correct choice and may be time will show its appropriateness, such as “travel in the Earth” versus “travel on the Earth.” Present day science proved the former is not only more appropriate but the only correct one, i.e. scientifically speaking.

17. Parallelization kept in form explained in a footnote or parenthetically

There are situations where the Arabic text has a word or a phrase (such as a proverb, for example) that has no English equivalent. Or the Arabic word has multiple meanings. In such a situation, if a word then it should be transliterated in italics and dealt with in two ways simultaneously. Firstly, it should be footnoted and fully explained in the footnote; if needed; secondly, in a parenthetical expression, a careful English choice of a word or a few words translated to give the closest possible meaning should be employed to explain it. Also thirdly for every transliteration, the reader must not solely rely on the translator's choice stated in the parenthesis. The reader is well advised to check for his/her personal best choice, by referring to the choices in the footnote, if applicable-/available. That is because the reader could be more perceptive or more knowledgeable or the general improved knowledge of the time could bear more or different perspective. For example: the posterior portion of the Hadeeth at the beginning of this Introduction could apply to him/her. For a short example, take a word like “foom,” in a certain Ayah in The Qur'an, which means either: (1) garlic, or (2) wheat, or (3) bread made of wheat, or (4) chickpeas. The meanings are so different, one cannot be used and not the others. Nor it is advisable to presume one meaning over the others from the context. Therefore, the word itself must be transliterated and italicized, and parenthetically explained.

Similarly, when there is an Arabic tongue-expression, i.e. idiomatic Arabic, such expression denotes many things, among them: the expression is made up of words when put together their meaning is none of the words making the expression. Thus, such phrasal-/idiomatic expressions may not be meaningful in English. However, it is elegant, may be formal, and clearly understood by the true Arabs. Example of that are the rather rife and recurrent metonymies in the Arabic language found in The Qur'an. For example:

A. “إِبْن السَّبِيل” = “Ibn as-Sabeel” = “Son of the path” = the traveler, a Qur'anic expression.

1A. “إِبْن حَالٍ” = “son of a legitimate marriage,” A2. “إِبْن الطَّرِيقِ” = “إِبْن الزَّئِي” = son of the way/road, and A3. “إِبْن عَجَلٍ” = “الْتَقِيطُ” = baby-discarded and found. These three are not Qur'anic although Arabic tongue expressions. A2= son of: adultery (زنى) specifically or fornication (سفاح) generally; and A3 by its name “عَجَلٌ,” meaning hurry-up, as the harlot hurries him during intercourse, and the baby if and when it comes gets discarded and is found by someone else.

B. “أُمُّ الْقُرَى” = “Umm al-qura” = “Mother of the villages” = Makka Al-Mukarramah.

C. “الْحَرْثُ وَالنَّسْلُ” = “Al-Hartha wa Nnas'l” = “The tillage and the progeny” = wife and children.

D. “عَضَّ عَلَى يَدِهِ” = “Adh-dh ala yadeh” = “He bit on his hand” = felt sorry.

E. “سَقَطَ فِي أَيْدِيهِمْ” = “Soqetta fee aydeyhem” = “Had been made to fall in their hands” = they regretted doing the wrong thing.

F. “وَجْهَ اللَّهِ” = “Wajho Allah” = “Allah's Face” = Allah's Entity, or Allah's pleasure.

E. “بَيْنَ يَدَيْهِ” = “bayna yaday'he” = before him, in front of him.

In the English language there are such English tongue / idiomatic expressions too, for example:

A. Cakewalk = Some-thing easily accomplished.

B: Soap-box is a temporary platform used while making an impromptu or nonofficial public speech. And soap-boxed means engaged in impromptu or nonofficial public speaking, often flamboyantly.

C: Troubleshooter: It's a word made up of “trouble” and “shooter,” but its meaning is neither.
1. A worker whose job is to locate and eliminate sources of trouble, as in mechanical operations. 2. A mediator skilled in settling disputes especially of a diplomatic, political, or industrial natures.

Arabic-tongue (idiomatic) expression also denotes, among other things:

- 1) All Arabic tongue expressions, i.e. the sentence-constructs of The Qur'an are of the same general nature as the Arabs express themselves, as is, in a polished (improved) or designative (divinely specified) form.
- (2) The grammar, style, syntax, implications, inferences, connotations, and denotations all are inherent in its dictions.
- (3) Thus, Arabic proverbs, similitudes, morals, ethics and the like would be elemental to it.
- (4) Eloquence and elegance, brevity and terseness, homogeneity and rhyme for adornment and proportion righteous tradition and worthy legacy of Arabic all are hallmarks of its diction. Also, figuration and substitution analogy and parallelism, compensation and assimilation speech constructs are ubiquitous in The Qur'an. The aforementioned are but a few examples of how lofty and magnanimous, splendid and superb, the Qur'anic expression is. As stated earlier, put simply: it is beyond replication, even in Arabic let alone rendition into other languages.

So in cases such as the above, it seems the best course of action is to render the precisest possible translation of the Arabic-tongue expressions as is, but explain it in a footnote in addition to the parenthetical approximation of it in English.

18. The necessity that seems as a redundancy

Frequently situations arise when an Arabic word or phrase, that carries certain significance, either for emphasis or linguistic grammar, where such a word is affixed at its beginning with an indicative particle as to the exact nature of the subject/object agent in the sentence and it is suffixed by a pronoun particle for that agent. For example #1: يَحْزَنُونَ

“They^z sadden.” Better yet: “Sadden they.^z”

Obviously, the first letter in the word “ي” indicates the nature of the subject agent that it is: (a) “a masculine they” (b) or “he” (in cases of a majestic addressee) or (c) a both; (d) but not a “she” and not (e) “a feminine they”. And what determines which of the possibilities is the pronoun suffixed to the word, in this case “ون.” Therefore, at the beginning of the word the potential subject/object agent is mentioned but its exact nature is explicitly stated, as indicated by “ون,” and in English shown by the superscript “^z” on the they, as they^z. Take example #2:

18A. يَكْفُرُونَ بِالْآخِرَةِ

Unbelieve they^z by the Hereafter^w.

وَهُمْ بِالْآخِرَةِ كَافِرُونَ

18B. “and they, by the Hereafter^w (are) unbelievers.”

وَبِالْآخِرَةِ هُمْ كَافِرُونَ

18C. “and by the Hereafter^w they (are) unbelievers.”

In 18A, the superscripted word “they^z” stands for “ون” in “كَافِرُونَ”

In 18B. The “they” emphasizes the fact that “they” by the Hereafter are unbelievers.

In 18C. The emphasis is that by the Hereafter they are unbelievers.

Question: why the emphasis? Answer: for the respective intensity and specificity.

19. The Qur'an, the Sunnah, and their rational corollary, Sha'rey'ah Analogy all are the sources of prosperity in this world and salvation in the Hereafter.

Of course, the incorruptible Qur'an and the true/good Hadeeth are eternally coupled; and both comprise the cornerstone of the Islamic faith; and both produce their rational corollary, Sha'rey'ah Analogy.³⁶ Thus, Sha'rey'ah Analogy is the third source of Sha're'yah Law. The incorruptible Qur'an and the true/good Sunnah are both guarded against corruption and loss.

³⁶ Some scholars add “al-Ejma'a”=plurality consensus of the Muslim-Fuqaha, a controversial concept. Emam Ahmad says whoever claims “al-Ejma'a” has certainly lied. Emam Ibn Hazm says Islam is for both the Jinn and the humans. For those who claim “al-Ejm'a” among human, what do they have to say about how did they gather “Verily We nazzalna (We repetitively descended) The Thekra^x (Qur’an)^x and verily We (are) for it^x assuredly keepers-up³⁷”.

What applies to the safe-keeping (keeping-up) of The Qur’an equally applies to the Hadeeth.

Islam means “submission to Allah;” hence, success and prosperity in this world and more importantly salvation in the Hereafter are for those who voluntarily embrace and adhere to Islam.

20. The implications of the brevity in the Arabic language

To those who are familiar with the Arabic language, brevity is one of its most salient hallmarks. The best of Arabic statements are those that are “terse and indicative.” That means the most desirable of statements are those that have the fewest of words but carry most meanings. Yes, meanings that could be direct, indirect, apparent, latent, figurative, metonymic, connotative, denotative, comparative, assimilative, poetic, rhythmic, etc. All that should be done in a most artful, flowery and exquisitely eloquent of expressions. All that The Qur’an does in a humanly unmatchable manner. No wonder it is the work of The Almighty, a further proof that The Qur’an is the word of Allah. Arabic language is elegantly poetic. It is extremely precise and laconic. The superabundance of words, as discussed in Section 18 next, enables those who know to be descriptively precise and laconic, yet perfect, poetic and gracefully eloquent; but in no way come even remotely close to the Qur’anic most lofty and most beautiful expressions. That is why the Qur’anic diction is in a class by itself.

21. Superabundance of words, each is uniquely descriptive, makes Arabic rather precise, yet elegant

If the Hadeeth is to be translated verbatim-equivalent, as it should, by implication and inference, the Word of Allah, The Qur’an, is surely more deserving in this respect, i.e. when rendered (translated) to other languages. The text of The Qur’an is eternal and not subject to any change. The text of The Qur’an is immutable, divinely revealed, representing the true word of Allah, which is quantitatively complete, qualitatively perfect and proportionally balanced. Thus, no human tampering with such a text is possible, let alone permissible. Any human tampering with such a text would be immediately discovered and branded as a sinful corruption. Obviously, human knowledge and mind are experiential and time oriented, thus inherently deficient. So due to such obvious limitations, both compare-not to the perfect and complete foreknowledge of Allah Who revealed such a text. It is a fact that over time and in direct proportion to the human scientific achievements and empirical progress, the meanings of some Qur’anic texts change. That is to say over time, some of the Qur’anic texts acquire newer meaning or meanings. Such newly acquired, meaning or meanings could be represented by: a word, a phrase or a whole statement in The Qur’an. This change stands to prove the embedded divine nature of the Qur’anic text, whose miracles are unending. No humanly written text is as miraculously merited as The Qur’an. Also, no humanly authored text defied corruption over the millennia as The Qur’an or the authentic (true) Hadeeth. Therefore, all the aforementioned make it imperative to adhere to the text and respect its integrity when translating Hadeeth parlance or Qur’anic diction. That is because time may break newer meanings not heretofore known for the same diction or parlance.

22. Translation of the Hadeeth or The Qur’an is a most solemn matter any translator could ever undertake.

The implications of above Sections 1 through 18 make translation of The Qur’an or the Hadeeth to another language, a most solemn matter to be ever undertaken in a lifetime by the plurality of “al-Ejma’a” among the Jinn? Obviously, they cannot. This puts the case to rest. Furthermore, rationally it does not stand, because if all the humans and even presumably (impossibility) the Jinn were to agree on some thing to legitimize it which Allah illegitimizes it will not stand. Or if they were to illegitimate some thing which Allah illegitimated that will not stand too.

³⁷ The word “حافظون” is rooted in “حفظ” which is “kept-up” not just “kept, or maintained,” or even “guarded.” Merriam Webster’s Dictionary puts “keep up” as: “to stay even (as in acts of strength, endurance, or speed) although he was small he could keep up with the larger boys in sports.” (Emphasis is added).

any serious translator. Such undertaking is a form of worship to Allah. Therefore, it should be carried out through the utmost of honesty of purpose, sincerity of pursuit, and loyalty to the integrity of every word or statement that is to be translated. Additionally, exactness and accuracy, through carefulness are absolutely necessary. Also, elegance and polish are to be sought where possible, to even partially reflect the original, as reflecting the original in full is an impossible dream let alone reality.

23. The Islamic vocabulary in English is unfortunately encumbered by unessential lingering appendages!

There are so many words that are totally alien and almost never used in the Arabic mode when speaking of The Qur'an, the Messenger and the Prophet of Allah (SAWS), or anything associated with both. Words, such as "verse," referring to a statement of The Qur'an; or "The Holy Qur'an"; the "Scripture", in reference to the name of The Qur'an or the text of The Qur'an. Such words are rooted and derive from biblical literature, not Islamic. In Arabic mode there are far superior corresponding words for all of them. However, none of those corresponding words is used for the same purpose as utilized for in English. The word "holy" is used thrice in The Qur'an and in all cases to describe a place, about where Allah was addressing His Great Messenger Moses. As to the word "verse," it should never ever, I repeat: never ever be used to mean an Ayah=a statement of The Qur'an. Allah in clear and unmistakable terms says that The Qur'an is "not surely a say of a poet"; thus, it should never be referred to as verse in English. However, let us first find out what is the dictionary meaning of the word "verse"?

23A. Dictionary definition of the word "verse" is:

(See Merriam Webster Unabridged Dictionary)

- "1. A single metrical line in a poetic composition; (emphasis is added).
2. Metrical or rhymed composition as distinct from prose, poetry; (emphasis is added).
3. The art or work of a poet; (emphasis is added).
4. One of the numbered subdivisions of a chapter in the Bible"; (emphasis is added).

Therefore, it is obvious that the word "verse" does not apply in any way, form or shape to the glorious and sacred Ayah from The Qur'an. Unfortunately, most English speaking Muslims when referring to Qur'anic Ayah tend to say "verse" of The Qur'an. Such English speaking Muslims know (or should) that Allah very clearly states in The Qur'an:

﴿وَمَا عَلَّمْنَاهُ الشَّعْرَ وَمَا يَنْبَغِي لَهُ إِنْ هُوَ إِلَّا ذِكْرٌ وَقُرْآنٌ مُبِينٌ﴾ يس: 69

"And not We taught him the poetry; and (is) not befit for him; not [he/it^x] ³⁸
(is) except a thekron (message/exhortation) and a Qur'an^x manifesters." (S36:69)

In another Ayah, Allah clearly says:

﴿وَمَا هُوَ بِقَوْلٍ شَاعِرٍ﴾ الحاقة: 41

"And not it^x (is) surely a say (of) a poet" (S69:41)

Therefore, in deference to Allah's Speech and in compliance to the aforesaid Ayat^w henceforth no Muslim should ever, ever refer to any part of The Qur'an as "verse," even remotely.

23B. what is the meaning of the word: "Ayah"?

The word "Ayah" (plural Ayat) has three distinct meanings, each of which shares with the others some common features of a miracle—i.e. of: (a) evoking great surprise, (b) sustained admiration, and (c) marked wonderment. Thus, the word "Ayah" could stand for:

- 1) Denoting a cosmic meaning—describing any Allah-made natural phenomenon, such as the sun, the moon, the heavens, the stars, the plants, the winds, the oceans, the seas, etc.

³⁸ The pronoun "هو" in this Ayah potentially carries more than one meaning. Qur'an commentators differ as to exactly what it is? For example: Emam الطبري says the pronoun: "هو" = "أي محمد", Emam القرطبي says: "أي هذا", Emam الرازي says: "أي هو ذكر و موعظة". Of course others do likewise, and each with a good rationale supporting their stand. So this pronoun could be: "he" or "it^x."

- 2) Signifying Allah-messenger's sign as a proof (miracle) that Allah sent him and empowered him with that "sign-as-proof" validating his empowerment, i.e. his miracle.
- 3) Designating a statement from The Qur'an. The Qur'an speaks of Allah's Criterion (His prescriptions or proscriptions) for the humans to know and act accordingly, on a voluntary basis, as The Qur'an emphatically states:

﴿لَا إِكْرَاهَ فِي الدِّينِ﴾ البقرة: 256

"No coercion in religion" (S2:256).

Therefore, we shall refer to the "Ayah^w" (plural "Ayat^w") as meaning miracle. The "Ayah^w" of The Qur'an could be a single letter, a word, a phrase, or a whole Surah (chapter). [See the definition of Surah in the Lexicon attached to this Translation.

23C. an Ayah of The Qur'an and a verse of the Bible

Therefore, the use of the word "verse" describing an Ayah of The Qur'an is not only unfortunate but actually out right inappropriate if not totally sinful and wrong. However, verse of the Bible is rather appropriate, by both definition and convention. Thus, we can say an Ayah of The Qur'an and a verse of the Bible.

23D. the word "Scripture" is not appropriate for designating any part of The Qur'an

Similarly, the use of the word "Scripture" to mean The Qur'an or its Ayat^w is just as bad, if not worst as the use of "verse" as above stated. That is because the word "Scripture" (with capital 'S') is described in the dictionary as: ["The sacred writings of the Bible. (Emphasis is added), also called "Holy Scriptures." Clearly the writing of the entire Bible is totally unverifiable, as it is not possible to authenticate all its authors, according to Christian scholars and reliable Christian references. The Bible is also one of the most unreliable sources of good historical, scientific or factual information, according to Western scholars and sources. It is definitively established fact that the Holy Bible was written (scripted, hence the word "scripture"), by nominally forty four authors. In fact only one of them can be authenticated and the rest are unknown people, who wrote at unknown times, to unknown audiences. Thus, The Qur'an is not "Scripture." The Qur'an is in a class by itself, called "The Qur'an," a "Surah^w" or an "Ayat^w" of The Qur'an.

24. For their religious terms, Muslims should not copy biblical terms

The rationally-based Arabic language is obviously blessed and honored by Allah to be the vehicle of His Speech, The Qur'an. Thus, since the Arabic language is endowed with a plethoric supply (superabundance) of words, each exactly and precisely describes what is to be intended in far superior and representative meanings and manner. Therefore, Muslims for their religious terms should enjoy the pleasure of a wide range of terms to describe exactly what they need. They surely do not need to copy from biblical literature for their religious terms. Their terms could be derived either from The Qur'an or the true Hadeeth. In addition to that, in more than one Ayah, Allah in The Qur'an clearly states that the Muslims are the "uttermosts," because of their religion, as such religion is quantitatively complete, qualitatively perfect and proportionally balanced, that is after all it is Allah-made. Thus, why should the Muslims imitate or borrow from other sources, especially when their own sources are better, preciser and richer for them. Muslims have lavisher and far more elegant supply of precisely designative terms to depict whatever they intend to say or do in the minutest of details. Therefore, words such as: "holy," "verse," and "Scripture" should completely disappear from Muslims' religious terminology, i.e. with respect to Islam, as all are totally inappropriate to use with respect to The Qur'an or the honorable Hadeeth.

25. In The Qur'an there are fifty-five characterizations for naming The Qur'an, none of which uses the word "holy"

The Qur'an is described by *fifty-five*³⁹ various characterizations for naming The Qur'an, none of which uses the word "holy." The word "holy" is used to describe places, as stated earlier, mentioned in The Qur'an only thrice, in different Ayat, in all cases describing a place, that of "al-wadey al-Moqaddasee Towa," example as in (S20:12).

However, there are five characterizations naming The Qur'an that are most commonly known, more than the others by most Muslims:

- (A) The Qur'an The Supreme; القرآن المجيد
- (B) The Qur'an The Magnificent; القرآن العظيم
- (C) The Qur'an The Munificent; القرآن الكريم
- (D) The Qur'an The Judicious; القرآن الحكيم, and
- (E) The Qur'an The Manifester; القرآن المبين.

Apparently, and Allah knows best, for each of the Five Pillars of Islam, there are eleven attributive names of The Qur'an corresponding to each Pillar. Following is an illustrative discussion of five such names.

25A. The Qur'an The Supreme

The characterization of The Qur'an The Supreme as "Supreme," is mentioned in The Qur'an twice, once as "And The Qur'an The Supreme," (S50:1), and the other as "Qur'an Supreme," (S85:21). Clearly the word "Supreme" means, among other lofty meanings, distinguished, high-ranking, and of highest morals, nothing tops it. This apparently, and Allah knows best, is associated with the "two-shahadas," the mandatory statements a non-Muslim must pronounce in order to enter into Islam and become a Muslim. The first is to say: "I bear witness that there is no deity but Allah;" and the second is to say: "I bear witness that Mohammad is His Messenger." Once a person sincerely enters Islam through this ritual ceremony, that person insures: (i) achieving the zenith of personal closeness to Allah; (ii) personal salvation in the Hereafter, (iii) personal safety from Hell; and (iv) personal ecstatic abode in Paradise. If the sincerity of the person continues (after pronouncing the two Shahads), that person shall be a good person and (v) his/her children shall be good too, as "the good begets the good."

25B. The Qur'an The Great

The characterization of The Qur'an as "The Great" is mentioned in The Qur'an once, as "The Qur'an The Great," (S15:87). Obviously, great means grand, splendid, outstanding, superlative, Supreme, in thoughts and deeds (among other splendid meanings of the word). Those words describe some of the salient characteristics of The Qur'an The Great. Apparently, and Allah knows best, this characterization of The Qur'an The Great is associated with the daily five times of a Muslim's prayers in order to be worthy of this greatness. Once a person is a Muslim, that person is required to maintain the five-daily-Prayers; thereby meeting Allah five times in any twenty-four hours (day/night) cycle, to be: (i) cleansed and fortified, in order to obtain or lead a proper life. The five times are at specified periods, for the male normally carried out in the Mosque, where a person (ii) interacts with familiar folks and gets introduced to new peoples. If, for no valid reason, the five prayers are not maintained one-hundred-percent, this amounts to a personal failure of inexcusable grave sin. Maintaining the daily five times Prayer is (iii) the only identifying "badge" a person has to prove his/her (iv) continuing belonging to Islam. After death, the very first thing a person is asked to account for is his/he Prayer. If the Prayers are found satisfactory, the person is acceptable and is already in good standing, shall have easy going and facile or no accounting. If on the other hand, the personal Prayers are found unsatisfactory, the person is in very bad standing, will be going through miserable accounting. Allah says in The Qur'an that prayer prohibits indecenty and the disrepute. Thus, a person who maintains the five Prayers will tend to (v) stay decent and reputable.

25C. The Qur'an The Munificent

The characterization of The Qur'an as "The Munificent" came once in The Qur'an, as "Munificent Qur'an" (S56:77). This characterization and Allah knows best, is apparently associated with the Third Pillar of Islam, az-Zakah, i.e. alms giving. From the word “Munificent” we know that it means bounteous, unsparing, openhanded, hospitable, generous giving, among the all-beautiful meanings of this word. Thus, aṣ-Zakah is giving in all those senses. It is giving a small portion of that which is extra to the personal needs for a full year and is in excess of a certain minimum amount. When this small portion is given, from that excess of a certain minimum, is given in accordance to the Criterion of the Zakah, the recipient is (i) appreciative and thankful. (ii) The giver feels gratified and contented. (iii) Additionally, Allah will bless the remaining portions (which is now purified through giving the Zakah) and (iv) Allah will likely prevent all possible adversities that might be on the way to afflict the person in his/her dearest (property, health, or relatives). (v) The act of Zakah (alms) giving enhances the repetition act, thereby repeating the cycle once again.

25D. The Qur'an The Manifester

The characterization of The Qur'an as “The Manifester” is mentioned as “The Qur'an The Manifester” twice, (S15:1) and (S36: 69). Manifester means perspicuous (clearly expressed and easy to understand), clarifier and explainer. This characterization is associated, and Allah knows best, with the wisdom of fasting, be it the obligatory fasting (for Muslims) during the munificent month of Ramadhan or voluntary fasting outside of that month. As stated in the Hadeeth and The Manifester Qur'an, Allah rewards for good deeds by double or triple folds; in fact, by seven folds, seven hundred folds, or more. However, in the case of fasting, obligatory or voluntary, Allah left the case fully open, beyond the seven hundred folds. In the Hadeeth it is stated that Allah says: “fasting is for Me and I reward for it.” That is because fasting is truly special worship; only Allah and the fasting person know that it is genuine. The genuineness of fasting is impossible to determine except for Allah to do. A person could pretend to be fasting. Thus, only Allah knows whether or not it is genuine. It is not just “not eating, not drinking, and abstaining from sexual and other known fast-breaking deeds,” it is the intention before and practice during the fasting that could make or break the fasting. Fasting was institutionalized and practiced by various religions and societies before Islam throughout the human history and communities. However, once fasting is properly and genuinely carried out, it is (i) one of the supremest personal feelings of closeness to Allah, as it clarifies and distinguishes the real faithful from others; (ii) it assures a person of the greatest Godly recompense; (iii) volumes upon volumes of books were written elaborating on the great health merits of fasting; (iv) Fasting is the most direct personal experience to appreciate the feelings of the needy; (v) Fasting teaches discipline and moral high grounds.

25E. The Qur'an The Judicious.

The characterization of The Qur'an as “The Judicious” is mentioned in The Qur'an The Judicious twice, “The Book The Judicious” (S10:1) and “The Qur'an The Judicious” (S36:2). This characterization is associated, and Allah knows best, with the wisdom of the Hajj (Pilgrimage) to Makkah. So it applies to both, the major (full) Hajj or the minor Hajj (the Omrah). However, in both cases of Hajj, the person who makes the Hajj experiences (i) the travails and tribulations of journeying, a wonderful learning experience for all; (ii) coming across new territories; (iii) coming in contact with new peoples; (iv) engaging in disciplining him/herself to strict criteria of various physical life activities and rituals; (v) winning the greatest prize of a life time, coming back as fresh from all the personal sins and wrongs as the “new born.”

26. Similarly, there are *thirty-seven*⁴⁰ characterizations naming Mohammad (SAWS) none employs the word “holy”

The Qur'an mentions Allah's Messenger and Prophet, Mohammad (SAWS), by five proper names. However, in the books of Hadeeth there are thirty-two additional descriptive names ⁴⁰ Names such as: 6. The Messenger of Allah. 7. The Prophet of Allah. 8. The Illiterate. 9. The Lamp. 10. The Bringer (or Most Bringer) of good tidings. 11. The Warner (or Most Warner). 12. The Illuminator. 13. The Inviter. 14. The Manifester, Clarifier, Explainer. 15. The Witness. 16. The Most Fervent (Eager), desiring the best for his people. 17. Most kind. 18. The Most Merciful. 19. The Exclusively Chosen. 20. The trustworthy. 21. The Truthful. 23. The Inviter. 24. The Seal. 25. The Multitudinously Mercy Giver. 26. The Compassionate. 27. The Explainer. 28. The reminder. 29. The Smiler. 30. The Killer of enemies of Allah. 31. The Dependent on Allah. 32. The Opener. 33. The Gift of Mercy. 34. The Gift of Grace. 35. The Guide. 36. The effacer. 37. The Gatherer.

for him (SAWS); none of those names employed the word “holy” in any way, form or shape. In the Arabic mode, at no time anyone referred to Mohammad (SAWS) using the word “holy,” directly or indirectly. The five proper names The Qur’an mentions for Mohammad (SAWS) are:

1. Mohammad. 2. Ahmad. 3. Abdullah. 4. Taha. 5. Ya’seen.

The rest of his names are descriptive of his character (SAWS), i.e. his characterizations (SAWS).

27. The Arabs and their language are honored; they are to spearhead The Qur’an and its message through Arabic language

For myriads of reasons, covered in some details, in my book, The Future World Order, Volumes II and I in varying degrees. Allah is: “Ever/Stout Doer for what [He] wants” (S85:16). The Arabs became the spearhead for the message of Islam from its very inception. Their language became the language of The Qur’an, the true word of Allah. Perhaps it is germane and illustrative to reiterate and paraphrase what we said about the Arabic language in some details in Volumes I and II of our book, The Future World Order. Here are some excerpts in part:

The Arabs for millenniums lived a meager life in the periphery of all civilizations in their barren desert. Prior to Islam, their contribution to the rest of humanity apparently was none. However, they possessed a unique, highly polished, and fantastic Allah given language, of which they were masters. During the pre-Islamic era they nearly perfected a linguistic industry, and made annual events thereof—events which were unheard of before, any time anywhere. The Arabic language is amply helpful in this respect—for its words and antonyms are encyclopedic in coverage and abundance. There are many terms for various words—e.g.: “sword,” “camel,” “dog,” “tent,” “mountain,” “valley,” “love,” “hunting,” “milk,” “rain,” “wind,” “cloud,” etc. The terms run into the dozens and sometimes into the hundreds. Thus, for instance, there are “60” words to mean “dog”—and no two words are identical. There are shades of meanings unique to each. That means the language is rather rich in vocabulary. Each word is an individual concept—i.e. a thought. Thus, the language encompasses a plethoric supply of ideas and words. There are five hundred words for the “sword” and about 48 words to describe the 24-hour (day/night) period. Thus, instead of saying (in English): “morning,” “noon,” “afternoon,” “evening,” “night,” and “midnight,” in Arabic the 48 words (not all are commonly known) describe almost each 1/2 hour of the 24 hour time span. It is not on the basis of coining two words to make one, (such as “afternoon”). It is rather a single word describing a specific time span. The Arabic language is root-based. It has about sixteen thousands word-roots (16, 000). Each root is logically-based, i.e. such roots are rationally-derivative; and so a word can be conjugated quite numerously. Imagine conjugating (giving all various forms) each root multiple times, to derive various actions, verbs, nouns, adjectives, etc. For example take a short list with respect to the adjective, and on it you gauge and measure accordingly:

- a. Adjective nomen (name), and b. Adjective being,
- c. Adjective comparative, and d. Adjective superlative,
- e. Adjective designating action as natural, not natural, permanent, not permanent,
- f. Adjective designating state as beginning, actually in progress, about to begin,
- g. Adjective intensive, and h. Adjective passive,
- i. Adjective numeral, denoting 1, 2, 3 or more but less than 9, in the tens, of abundance, of multitudes,
- j. For all the above considering it for 1,2,3, or more, feminine for 1,2,3, or more, masculine for 1,2,3, or more, diminutive, for 1, 2, 3, or more, or enormous for 1, 2, 3, or more.

No other language has that many word roots and logical derivatives. The Arabic language is the longest living language there is. It is more than 80 centuries old (8, 000 years old). Poets before Islam engaged in a mind busting linguistic adornment for their poetry, see Section 25 next.

28. Mind busting linguistic adornments

Poets before Islam had a “field” with their poems and how to beautify them with the overwhelming (“mind busting”) linguistic adornments and highly descriptive yet laconic terms.

Bombast(grandiloquent)and declamation(orator)reached a lofty zenith of magnificence. Their poems were hallmarks of eloquence, elocution, allusion and alliteration, originality, substitution,figuration,conjugation,hysteron-proteron,synecdoche,rhetoric, analogy, and parallelism;metonymy,appropinquation (approximation), interpolation, accompaniment; compensation, assimilation (comparison), nunnation for quavering or prolongation for modulation, epithet, sarcasm, and paradigm. Such were only a few examples of what was involved. All that, plus a lot more, prompted the poets of the time to be artful, flowery, and simply beautiful in their poetic expressions and poems. Moreover, they engaged in a razor edge competition: to excel and outdo one another. In such an environment The Qur'an descended to all the Arabs outstripping and surpassing their linguistic most powerful abilities at the zenith of competence by immeasurable standards.

29. The Qur'an surpassed even the loftiest and most splendid poetry; it is unique and in a class by itself

Thus, within such an environment of linguistic elegance and eloquence, plus the plethoric supply of words and antonyms enriching the Arabic language, The Qur'an descended. As a result of such a descending, Arabic language was further propelled to even a higher zenith of polish, magnificence, and splendor of expressions, through the mouth of the "unlearned" Mohammad (saws). Mohammad (saws) was never known to be an orator (a rhetorician), poet or even a public speaker. The Qur'an not only surpassed but even challenged that lofty magnificence and high splendor. For lack of a better thing to say, they said it was "forged". Why forged? They claimed that Mohammad (saws) had "forged" it. At first The Qur'an challenged anyone alone or assisted by others (save Allah) to produce "ten forged" Surahs like that of The Qur'an. That challenge was not answered, as anticipated. The Qur'an says:

﴿أَمْ يَقُولُونَ اقْتَرَاهُ قُلْ فَأْتُوا بِعَشْرِ سُوْرٍ مِّثْلِهِ مُفْتَرِيَاتٍ

وَادْعُوا مَنْ اسْتَطَعْتُمْ مِنْ دُونِ اللَّهِ إِنْ كُنْتُمْ صَادِقِينَ ﴿١٣﴾ هود: 13

"Or say they^z: [he] forged it^x; let-say [you^s]: then oto (let-come you^z) by ten Surwaren (Qur'an Subdivisions) forgeries^w like it^x; and let-summon you^z whomever you^z could of lesser than Allah, if you^c were ssa'dequeena (always truth enforcers)". (S11: 13)

Later on The Qur'an challenged anyone alone or supported by all others (save Allah) to produce one single Surah like that of The Qur'an. Also that was not answered. The Qur'an says:

﴿وَإِنْ كُنْتُمْ فِي رَيْبٍ مِمَّا نَزَّلْنَا عَلَىٰ عَبْدِنَا فَأْتُوا بِسُورَةٍ مِثْلِهِ

وَادْعُوا شُهَدَاءَكُمْ مِنْ دُونِ اللَّهِ إِنْ كُنْتُمْ صَادِقِينَ ﴿٢٣﴾ البقرة: 23

"And if you^c were in suspicion of what nazzalna (We repetitively descended) on Our *ab'de*⁴¹ (slave), then oto (let-come you^z) by a *Suraten*⁴² (division of The Qur'an) of its^x like; and let-summon you^z yourⁿ witnesses⁴³ of lesser than Allah, if you^c were ssa'dequeena (always-truth-enforcers)." (S2: 23)

In fact, The Qur'an informed assuredly and clearly that even if all the humans and the Jinn were to gather together (trying) to produce the like of The Qur'an, they would not and could not do that:

﴿قُلْ لَنْ يَجْتَمِعَ الْإِنْسُ وَالْجِنُّ عَلَىٰ أَنْ يَأْتُوا بِمِثْلِ هَٰذَا

الْقُرْآنَ لَا يَأْتُونَ بِمِثْلِهِ وَلَوْ كَانَ بَعْضُهُمْ لِبَعْضٍ ظَهِيرًا ﴿٨٨﴾ الإسراء: 88

"Let-ay [you^s]: indeed if gathered the humans and the Jinn to ya'ato (come they^z) by like this [The] Qur'an, not ya'atona (come they^z) by its^x like, even (if) were some for some (were) dha'beeran (backers/ supporters)". S17:88

* Notice this great Ayat ^w says: (1) "بمِثْل" "by like" and not "like." (2) That is to say, the great Ayah elegantly but more importantly indicatively employs the particle "ب" in the word "بمِثْل". Such particle has about twenty different meanings and implications, ⁴¹ The word "ab'de" = "slave," the denotation of this word is vastly paradoxical with respect to Allah vis-à-vis the huma.s. See the Lexicon attached to this Translation for an elaboration.

⁴² See the Lexicon attached to this Translation for this proper name of a division of The Qur'an.

⁴³ These are the idols whom they worshipped and claimed to bring them closer to Allah; or the ones who bear witness by seeing or hearing of some thing, especially the linguistic orators and rhetoricians who render judgment as to the best poem or speech. They were challenged to call on all their helpers, except Allah, of all the idols and the linguistic orators and rhetoricians to come to their assistance to produce the like of The Qur'an.

among them: (a) “المجاورة”=disregarding of, (b) “الإستعلاء”= superiority, in the sense of urging to go beyond or of course leave alone, or consider condescendingly; and (c) “التبعيض”=portioning. All that suggests, and Allah knows best, that since it is not possible for them all to produce even something that looks like The Qur’an let alone like The Qur’an itself, therefore (a) disregard them, (b) go beyond them in a superior manner, as they are not worthy of the task and (c) they are but a party of such flunkers. All other English translations of The Qur’an known to this translator miss such subtleties as covered in this asterisk and many others like it to come, Allah willing, because their translation is interpretive and flawed, surely not verbatim/textual.

30. The conclusion is: The Qur’an cannot be the synthesis of the human beings, singly or collectively

The conclusion is that The Qur’an cannot be the synthesis of the human beings, by singular or collective efforts. For over 14 centuries so far, no one alone or supported by any/all others, came up with “by-the like” let alone the like of The Qur’an, even in part let alone in whole. Human synthesis of The Qur’an is truly impossible in all its aspects—be it the text, context, or the syntax. There were some feeble and indeed foolish attempts made by some people but all were so insubstantial, stupid, and laughter inducing efforts. Clearly, Allah knows His challenge. And that is why He made it, knowing full well, through His foreknowledge and Omniscience, in advance that no one can ever stand to the challenge. Only The Creator of all things knows how—because He is the Creator, Fashioner and Omniscient. Thus, Allah’s open challenge stood, and shall continue to stand forever. It is not only the linguistic synthesis difficult as it is, but also the ideas and the eternally correct and ever renewing information therein in all fields of human knowledge.

31. Each challenge is according to the corresponding knowledge and skill of the challenged people

Clearly, Moses’ and Jesus’ (pbuo both) miracles were specific and for a one time occurrence of each, for those present then to experience, appreciate, and be impressed with the extraordinary phenomena. But The Qur’an as an eternal miracle, only linguistically expressed in an intellectual and scientific Marvel for all of the humankind throughout the ages. Therefore, The Qur’an will remain eternally: unique, informative, and inimitable in its perspectives and panoramas. Also the information in The Qur’an will always be everlastingly fresh, depending on the level of man’s empirical achievements at any given time—which really depends on the individual’s general knowledge of his/her era, deductive, detective, and inventive capacities—i.e. deducing, or detecting the specific(s) from the general principle, the vice versa, or the inventing and discovering of something all-together anew.

32. The Qur’anic information is divine, unattainable by man except through Allah’s design, permission, and revelation

The Qur’an is not a book in any specific discipline of the humanities, save religion. Nevertheless, it contains signs and clues (sometimes explicit sometimes implicit) concerning the true nature of things in all human endeavors, a fact knowable to some and unknowable to most. It also contains facts concerning the nature of the universe, its contents and their creatural behaviors—including man (see Section 30 next). The challenge remains in how to discern or decipher those signs or clues in the respective areas of concerns or disciplines. Discerning and deciphering will occur at predetermined quanta by Allah, in a specific time, place, way, and through a person or persons. For elaboration see my book, The Future World Order, Vol. II, Chapter 24.

33. The Qur'an elucidates on everything, and ultimately explains itself by itself

33A. what is great about The Qur'an is that it is "an exposition/elucidation for everything."

Such is a fact known by some and not known by most. The Qur'an says:

﴿وَوَرَّأْنَا عَلَيْكَ الْكِتَابَ تَتِينَآ لِكُلِّ شَيْءٍ﴾ النحل: 89

“.....and nazzalna (We repetitively descended) on you^s The Book, an exposition/elucidation for everything” (S16:89).

33B. and also, in another Ayah:

﴿فَسْأَلُوا أَهْلَ الذِّكْرِ إِنْ كُنْتُمْ لَا تَعْلَمُونَ﴾ الأنبياء: 7

“....so let-ask you^z the Thekre (The Qur'an/ The Book) folks^w en(if) you^c were not knowing you^z.” (S21:7).

The Qur'an addresses every conceivable aspect in this life and the hereafter to the humanly-knowable extent. Knew such a fact who knows it and did not know it who does not know it. The Qur'an specifies what it had generalized previously and vice versa. But ultimately The Qur'an explains itself by itself, as shown time and again.

In the above Ayah, The Qur'an in unambiguous and clear terms directs everyone to:(1)seek authentic knowledge through those who know; and(2)avoid judging by presumption.

33C. clearly The Qur'an says:

﴿وَلَا تَقْفُ مَا لَيْسَ لَكَ بِهِ عِلْمٌ﴾ الإسراء: 36

"And let-not ta'gfo ([*you*s] judge by perspicacity and presumption) what (is) not for you^g by it^x knowledge" (S17:36).

33D. let us illustrate. In general terms The Qur'an says in:

﴿وَبِالْأَسْحَارِ هُمْ يَسْتَغْفِرُونَ﴾ الذاريات: 18

"And by the as'ha're (dawns' ere), they yastaghferona (seek forgiveness they^z)" (S51:18)

33E. in specific terms The Qur'an says in:

﴿إِلَّا ءَالَ لُوطٍ نَجَّيْنَاهُمْ سَحَرًا﴾

"....except(Lott's) aa'la (family/ house/ kin) najjayna (We iteratively delivered) them by a sa'har (dawn's ere)." (S54:34)

The lesson to be learned from the above,33A-33E, is:(1)The Qur'an addresses everything;
(2)The Qur'an generalizes and specifies. (3)The Qur'an ultimately explains itself by itself, i.e. where the generalities are specified and the specificities are generalized. (4)The generality is by the as'ha're(dawns' ere)seeking forgiveness.The *specificity*is that(Lott's)aa'la (family/ house/ kin) were delivered by a sa'har (dawn's ere).

So one has to be fully knowledgeable about the whole Qur'an in order to understand it in context and find how it explains itself by itself. The greatest lesson is never take The Qur'an out of context. As such an act is not only sinful but the doer would be a laughingstock.

34. The Qur'an and the Sunnah, touch on every conceivable human endeavor and the universe, directly or indirectly

In addition to The Qur'an, there is the Sunnah (Prophet's speech/ actions), which complements The Qur'an by explaining some of it or some aspects of it. For example the Sunnah specifies or details the "generalities" in The Qur'an. Also, the Sunnah elaborates on some specificity in The Qur'an. Hence, The Qur'an and the Sunnah both completely address every conceivable human endeavor, giving rise to bases and sources of the Sharey'ah Laws. However, the two (i.e. The Qur'an and the Sunnah) inherently prompt the mind for their rational complement, the Sharey'ah Analogy. By Sharey'ah analogy we mean, Sharey'ah scholars through analogy, would deduce or infer and reach informed Sharey'ah judgment of an unknown situation based on comparisons of the similarities of a known Sharey'ah situation. Thus, when The Qur'an is coupled with the Sunnah and the Sharey'ah analogy the result is a quantitatively complete, qualitatively perfect and proportionally balanced code for laws of life for a divine-guidance, producing righteous and balanced living suitable for all the humans for all times and places. That is in addition to dealing with the Universe in terms of creation, contents, and history, i.e. past, present, and future. Thus, the trio, The Qur'an, the Sunneh, and the Sharey'ah Analogy directly or indirectly expound on every conceivable human endeavor and the nature of the Universe and deal with all in the most perfect rational and scientific way. After all it is from Allah, The Almighty, The Creator, The Omniscient and The Omnipotent.

35. The Qur'an designates and the Sunnah complements

The Qur'an is clear and unambiguous in terms of designating the pristine Sunnah is there to complement and explain The Qur'an. The Qur'an says:

﴿وَمَا آتَاكُمُ الرَّسُولُ فَخُذُوهُ وَمَا نَهَاكُمْ عَنْهُ فَانْتَهُوا﴾ الحشر: 7

“And whatever the messenger aa'takum (accorded you^b) so let- you^z take it^x and whatever [he] forbade you^b regarding it^x so let-you^z cease (doing its^x).” (S59:7)

The Qur'an also says:

“And not [he] pronounces by the hawa (tendentious liking).

Not it^x (is) except a revelation^x being revealed.” S53:3-4

Clearly the pronoun “[he]” in the above Ayah refers to The Messenger and the Prophet (SAWS); and the “it^x” refers to his pronouncements. As a matter of fact, if it were not for the Sunneh, Muslims would not know how to pray, perform Hajj, or give Zakah, or do most, if not all, the worships to Allah. It is the Sunnah which designates, explains and elaborates on whatever The Qur'an states in generalities that need specificities. Also, the Messenger (SAWS) said: “You pray as you saw me praying.” On Hajj (Pilgrimage) occasion, he said: “Take from me all your rituals.” Clearly all that makes a lot of valid logic and a good deal of good rationale. Thus, those that claim that “they go by what The Qur'an says only,” i.e. they want to be oblivious of the Sunnah, could not be more wrong, by the verbatim of The Qur'an itself, in light of the above quoted Ayah (S59:7).

36. The Qur'an is: either self-evidently true and correct, or ultimately bound to be true and correct by experience and/or scientific means

Believers in The Qur'an take its entire contents to be right and true on the basis of faith, when they do not know. They take it like that on the basis of empirical science when they do know. These bases served the believers well in the past and will serve them well in the future. They reckon that The Qur'an is for all ages, places, and social strata. Therefore, what they do not currently know is not necessarily conclusive. As time progresses and man acquires greater maturity, experience and conclusive (i.e. confirmed) scientific knowledge, invariably and inevitably the rightness and veracity of The Qur'an will prevail, as it did since its revelation. The Qur'an shall stand absolutely perfect. The Qur'an is Allah's (the Omniscient's) Word. Scientific confirmation comes only after a series of (divinely predetermined) stages, through empirical observations or findings, scientific hypotheses/theories, and last a confirmation law. At the stage of scientific certainty, through a confirmation law, The Qur'anic Marvels shine with greater brilliance and flying colors. This takes place throughout the history of mankind, proving for each successive generation that The Qur'an is beyond doubt, is the true word of Allah to guide humanity divinely and so to ultimately save it.

37. The Qur'an is: consistent and error-free. It is meant to be for all locales, ages and peoples. Its synthesis is divinely made

Although The Qur'an came down over a long stretch of time (over 23 years) and geographic locations piecemeal, its syntactical arrangement is most amazing. Each word, phrase, sentence, or Marvel is arranged by divine designation. The Prophet (SAWS) once in receipt of any Qur'anic revelation, not only he memorized it, but immediately dictated it to one of the amanuensis (writers/registrars of the revelations) and told the amanuensis (by Allah's designation) exactly where to place whatever that was revealed in a particular place of a Surah—i.e. telling them to place the new revelation before such and such, and between such and such (Marvel or Ayah). The Prophet (SAWS) had no say as to such exact placements of the various words, phrases and Marvels. Yet at the end, we have a perfectly consistent, ageless and absolutely consistent narration. There is no discrepancy whatsoever making a self-evident proof that it is divine. Also given the historical piecemeal revelation of The Qur'an, and its syntactical arrangement over that many years and geographic locations, if it were of human making, then inconsistencies and discrepancies were bound to have occurred in it. Nevertheless, based on objective examinations of The Qur'an one is amazed to find that the entire contents of The Qur'an to be rather miraculously harmonious and rationally consistent—without any error or discrepancy whatsoever. This is a miraculous phenomenon by any human standard. Such a phenomenon could not be coincidental. It is by divine design, to be a sign by and of itself. No human product can even claim a likewise model. No wonder, because it is Allah's Work. The Qur'an states such a phenomenon—urging all concerned to ponder and reflect over The Qur'an:

﴿أَفَلَا يَتَذَكَّرُونَ الْقُرْآنَ وَلَوْ كَانَ مِنْ عِنْدِ
غَيْرِ اللَّهِ لَوَجَدُوا فِيهِ اخْتِلَافًا كَثِيرًا﴾ النساء: 82

“Do then not ruminate they^z The Qur'an^x; and had [was^x/it^x] from ende (springing of) other than Allah, surely(would have)found they^z in it^x multitudinous difference.” (S4:82)

Of course, the nonobjective, the ignorant, or the plainly stubborn, as well as the bigoted would “see” inconsistency or discrepancy regardless of whether such inconsistencies or discrepancies exist or not. For such (stubborn/biased) people we shall beseech (pray to) Allah to illuminate their minds and hearts and divinely-guide them to the aright-path. However, the fact remains that The Qur'an is the Book most accurate and most perfect all around. Falsehood cannot even approach it from before or behind it, as it is the embodiment of the Right and the Truth from Allah, The Omniscient, Who is The Hakeem (Possessor of the ultimate wisdom) and worthy of the praise and thanks—Allah says:

﴿لَا يَأْتِيهِ الْبَاطِلُ مِنْ بَيْنِ يَدَيْهِ وَلَا مِنْ خَلْفِهِ تَنْزِيلٌ مِنْ حَكِيمٍ حَمِيدٍ﴾ فصلت: 42

“Not ya'atet (comes to) it^x the falsehood^x from between its^x both hands⁴⁴ and nor from its^x rear; [it's] a descending from *Hakeemen*⁴⁵ (the infinite hekmaḥ^{w46} possessor), Hameeden (multitudinously praised, multitudinous praiser He)”. S41: 42

There are numerous Ayat in The Qur'an confirming that The Qur'an is the Right from Allah:

﴿إِنَّهُ الْحَقُّ مِنْ رَبِّكَ﴾ هود: 17

“Verily it^x (is) the right from your^t Lord”. S11:17

Such a testimony is all that is needed as sufficient and necessary attestation from Allah Himself to support The Qur'an, His true Word. The Qur'an has its own style of expression. Since The Qur'an is unique, so is the Qur'anic style, requiring a unique translation, that chooses the right word and adheres to the integrity of its verbatim text at all times.

38. Most serious is the incorrect translation due to improper use of words, phrases or extrapolations

Following are two examples of incorrect translations, taking a word in an Ayah and a phrase in another (although there are other words/phrases in this example not being addressed):

Example # 1 (incorrect word usage):

“Set forth to them
The parable of two men:
For one of them We provided
Two gardens of grapevines
And surrounded them
With date palms:
In between the two
We placed cornfields.” (Emphasis is added). (S18:32)

⁴⁴ This is an Arabic tongue-expression meaning: before it, in front of it.

⁴⁵ For the word “حَكِيم” see the Lexicon attached to this Translation for “الحكمة.” the derivative of “حَكَم.” Because of Allah's foreknowledge about all things in their pre and post existence effects all-around, and His perfectly sound choice and use of things in their proper place and function to produce the best desired immediate and ultimate results, He is “حَكِيم” = infinite hekmaḥ Practicer. Also, “حَكِيم” = “مَحْكَم,” that is Allah-perfected, according to Qur'an commentators, as in (S44: 4).

⁴⁶ The English word “wisdom,” inextricably linked to human deficient knowledge and incomplete experience, is highly inadequate term to describe its supposed Arabic equivalent “hekmaḥ.” See the Lexicon attached to this Translation, for an exposition of the word “hekmaḥ.”

- A. The word in reference is the last word in this Ayah, namely the word “cornfields.” In fact, The Qur’an does not use the word “cornfield,” per se, at all. Also, the words “tillage” or “cultivation,” words used in this connection by others, are also not the word The Qur’an uses either. If Allah meant the words: “tillage,” or “cultivation,” or “cornfields” (for that matter), Allah would have done so. But Allah did not. The word Allah used is: “ẓar’a,” rooted in the Arabic word “ẓara’a,” a word which has no English equivalent per se. The word “ẓar’a,” has very significant implications, see B next.
- B. The word “ẓara’a,” which The Qur’an uses means: the green standing crop, just before harvesting, or the vegetation as it just sprouted. The English language does not have an exact equivalent for the Arabic word “ẓar’a,” a word that is rather precise, descriptive, connotative and denotative. It involves an act of Allah Himself, which the human beings are not capable of doing. Human beings till, cultivate, sow, water, and expose all that to the sun; but Allah alone is the One Who makes the “ẓar’a,” i.e. after we till a cultivable land, sow the seed in it, water it, and expose that to the sun, by leave (ordained Laws) of Allah, He will make it to germinate and sprout, producing the “ẓar’a” we are discussing. Thus, the proper thing to do is transliteration of “ẓar’a” with a parenthetical and a footnote explanation:

وَجَعَلْنَا بَيْنَهُمَا زَرْعًا ﴿٣٢﴾ الكهف: 32

“And We made between them both “ẓar’ad”⁴⁷”. S18:32

- C. To confirm the fact that Allah and He alone, is the One Who makes the “ẓar’a”, He stated in another Ayah, something that is obviously indisputable in the mind of the perceiver. Consider the following Ayah:

﴿أَفَرَأَيْتُمْ مَا تُمْنُونَ * أَأَنْتُمْ تَخْلُقُونَهُ أَمْ نَحْنُ الْخَالِقُونَ﴾ الواقعة: 58-59

“Have seen you^z what ejaculate⁴⁸ you^z; are you^z creating it^x or (are) We the Creators [of it^x]” (S56:58-59)

- D. Clearly, no one disputes the fact that the ejaculated semen is the making of Allah, and not anyone else. This Ayah (S56:58-59) precedes the Ayah of the “ẓar’a”, and this same Ayah of the “ẓar’a” is followed by another Ayah of (pure water) in the rain-loaded cloud, which only Allah is capable of making, and bringing down from high, a special kind of clouds. Allah says:

﴿أَفَرَأَيْتُمْ أَلْمَاءَ الَّذِي تَشْرَبُونَ * أَنْتُمْ أَنْزَلْتُمُوهُ مِنَ الْمُزْنِ أَمْ نَحْنُ الْمُنْزِلُونَ﴾ الواقعة: 58-59

“Have then seen you^c the water^x which^x drink you^z; have you^z descended it^x from the *muẓn*⁴⁹ (bearers-of-pure-water-clouds) or (are) We the *munẓeloon*⁵⁰ (Causers of its^x descending).” S56:68-69

- E. Also in another Ayah, in connection with the word (“ẓar’a”)

- “ẓar’a,” rooted in “ẓara’a,” past tense;
- “yeẓ-ra-a’o” the future tense;
- “ta-ẓra-a’oon,” you (in the masculine plural) make the “ẓar’a”; and ⁴⁷ See the Lexicon attached to this Translation for an elaboration of this word, for which there is no English equivalent. However, generally it means: green standing crop, just before harvesting, or the vegetation after sprouting.

⁴⁸ Incidentally, all the translations this translator came across use the word “emit,” instead of ejaculate, which The Qur’an literally and correctly employs. There are reasons for the use of ejaculate rather than emit. All the meanings of “emit” do not satisfactorily describe the specific meaning intended. The dictionary meanings of the word “emit” are: 1. to give or send out matter or energy; it also means: 2.a. to give out as sound; utter, and b. to voice; express. Thus, none of those meanings is appropriate for the intended Qur’anic meaning. Again, if Allah intended “emit” He would have used it. However, He did not; and instead He used the more precise word for the intended meaning to be conveyed, by connotation and denotation, and designation in addition to the stated textual syntax. The word “ejaculate” gives precise, specific and unmistakable description. In fact, no other word could serve this intended purpose in such direct, precise and laconic diction. This is the truth. And Allah says that He is not “shy” to tell the truth. In The Supreme Qur’an it is clearly stated in a certain Ayah that tells the right. No one should shy from telling the right. The respective Ayah is: “And Allah discomfits not from the right.” (S33: 53).

⁴⁹ “Muẓn” are the clouds, or the white clouds, that bear very pure water, not any water.

⁵⁰ The word “munẓeloon” is plural, masculine subjective noun, meaning the causers of the descending. Hence “munẓeloon” has no English equivalent. Descender= one that descends, gives a different meaning.

(d) “taẓ-ẓare-a’ona” you (in the masculine plural) make it to be “ẓar’a.”

(e) “aẓ-ẓare-a’oon,” makers of the “ẓar’a.”

F. Allah inquires, surely not to uncover unknown facts, because Allah knows all the facts in advance. Therefore, the inquiry is determinative and conclusive, i.e. Allah and the perceiver of the inquiry already know the answer on obvious bases. Allah says:

﴿أَفَرَأَيْتُمْ مَا تَحْرُثُونَ﴾ ﴿أَأَنْتُمْ تَرْزُقُونَهُ أَمْ نَحْنُ الزَّارِعُونَ﴾ الواقعة: 63-64

“Have then seen you^c what you^z till; are you^f “ta-ẓra’aona”⁵¹ (you^z cause to germinate) it^x or (are) We the “ẓa’are-aon”⁵² (the causers of its^x sprouting)”. (S56: 63)

G. There are many such Ayah that state such determinative inquiries, where the answer is obvious to the astute, if not the normal intelligence of any one.

H. Clearly, in the case of ejaculation of semen, no one creates it but Allah. Similarly, the “ẓar’a” is the making of Allah, and Allah alone.

I. Also, the bringing down of the “muẓn,” pure water from the clouds bearing such water, is only Allah, Who can do that. Thus, we have three different items that are subject only to Allah’s creation, bringing forth or down--the semen, the “ẓar’a,” and the “muẓn,” respectively. Obviously, on pondering the use of any word in The Qur’an, it will be vividly clear to the astute that such use is a miracle in and of itself. When a deeply-knowing person reads The Qur’an in Arabic he will definitely conclude that no human being can make such choices that will turn to be so absolutely descriptive, exact, denotative, connotative, designative, eloquent and elegant all at the same time and at all times. Only Allah can make such miraculous choices and their proper combinations. That makes The Qur’an to be unquestionably the true word of Allah, just on the basis of such linguistic miracles that are indeed multitudinous.

Example # 2 (incorrect translation of an Ayah S3:139:

﴿وَلَا تَهِنُوا وَلَا تَحْزِنُوا وَأَنْتُمْ الْأَعْلَوْنَ إِنْ كُنْتُمْ مُؤْمِنِينَ﴾ آل عمران: 139

A. “So lose not heart,
Nor fall into despair:
For ye must gain mastery
If ye are true in Faith.” S3:139

B. “Faint not nor grieve, for ye will overcome them if ye are (indeed) believers.” S3:139

C. “So do not become weak (against your enemies), nor be sad, and you will be superior (in victory), if you are indeed (true) believers.” S3:139.

The above three translations, quoted from the “best” currently available English “translations,” are for the same Ayah. May Allah be kind and plentifully reward those translators who, I think, must have done their utmost to come up with those “translations” as quoted above. However, none of them is satisfactory. Let us take each individually.

But first let us establish the proper translation of the Ayah as it appears in The Qur’an, famous for its brevity, succinctness, eloquence and elegance: The Ayah says:

“And let not *ta’beyno*⁵³ (you^z: weaken/ love the world and dislike death in the cause of Allah) and let not sadden you^z while you^f (are) the a’alan-na (uttermosts/ uppermost-ones), if you^c were believers.”

⁵¹ Meaning: cause it to germinate, sprout, and become crop ready for harvesting. Some translators use the word “grow.” Only figuratively, the word “grow” can be used as a synonym for “ẓar-a.” Grow=Nama or Yanmee, or Yanmo for adding to wealth, finance, fuel to fire, or adding more seeds to the soil in order to produce more quantity, etc. However, it is not suitable for the specific meaning intended by the Great Ayah.

⁵² Meaning: Causers of it to germinate, sprout and become crop ready for harvesting.

⁵³ For the word “تَهِنُوا” see footnote 32 above.

A.1. The glorious Ayah neither contains nor implies the word “so,” but it begins with “and.” Furthermore, “lose not heart”=be discouraged not. The word used in the Ayah says: “let not tabeyno.” First the word linguistically: is a command-verb, derived from wahn= “weakness.” Thus it is commanding the present plural masculine not to succumb for/to weakness. There is no English equivalent for “theno.” Second Al-Wahn, as explained/defined by Mohammad (SAWS) is: love of the world and a dislike of death in the cause of Allah, see 21363 مسند الإمام أحمد برقم for Hadeeth Al-Wahn. Thus, the proper translation for the Ayah is as shown above. So, it implies more than “loss of heart or a discouragement.” The Qur’anic words are very brief but are packed with meanings.

A.2. “Nor fall into despair” per se, is totally not mentioned in the Ayah. The Ayah says: “and let not sadden,” again commanding the present plural masculine not to “sadden,” it neither carries nor implies the strong notion of “falling into despair,” which means losing all hopes, or being overcome by a sense of futility, defeat and resignation.

A.3. “For ye must gain mastery,” may Allah forgives the translator for such a “translation.” This “translation” is totally out of line and is not what the Ayah says at all. The Ayah conclusively, determinatively and unambiguously says: “while you^f (are) the upper-mosts.” Really true Muslims are always the a’alanwa (uttermosts, upper-mosts) because:

- i. The true Muslims believe in the Singularity of Allah;
- ii. The true Muslims enjoin by the ma’aroof (rationaly acceptable and Sharey’ah sanctioned deed) and they forbid the munkar (rationaly objectionable or Sharey’ah prohibited act);
- iii. The true Muslims had already bested the disbelievers in Badr Campaign;
- iv. The true Muslims’ cause is for Allah and their opponents is for the Satan;
- v. The true Muslims’ argument is superior to their opponents’ argument, i.e. their religion is superior to their opponents’ religion, as their religion is Allah’s making;
- vi. Ultimately the true Muslims shall prevail, as Allah had stated this fact to them time and again in The Qur’an, provided they adhere to its commands;

Clearly Allah always comes to the assistance of the true Muslims. This fact repeated itself time and again in history of the Muslims. Whenever, the Muslims adhered to their great religion, they were victorious, i.e. “a’alanwa (uttermosts, upper-mosts).” Whenever they were less than what they should be towards their unmatchable religion, they were subject of defeat and humiliation. This concept is mentioned in The Qur’an time and again, to constantly remind the Muslims of such an historical fact. Perhaps they desist from their sins and errors, repent and go back to become good Muslims again. Remember also that this Ayah is first (was for) addressing the companions of the Prophet (SAWS). Those companions were the best generations of Muslims ever. The Messenger of Allah (SAWS) said about them that they were the best generation, and the ones after them are the next best, and the generation after that are the next, next best.

A.4. The Ayah does not say: “if you are true in faith,” per se, as alleged by this translation. The Ayah says: “if were you^c believers” plain, clear and without any further ado.

B.1. This translation begins with somewhat the right word. But it claims that the Ayah says or implies “grieve not.” To “grieve” is to have grief, deep mental anguish, say from bereavement. The word “grieve” implies more than “sad,” meaning unhappy.

B.2. The Ayah also does not say “for you will overcome them”; nor does the Ayah mentions the word “indeed” at all. Clearly the Ayah says: “if were you^c believers”, plain, clear and simple.

C.1. The word “so” does not appear in the Ayah. Also the phrase “against your enemies,” is neither in nor is implied by the Ayah. The Ayah has the word: “And” at the very beginning of it, which this translation omits altogether. Also, the Ayah says: “and let not sadden you,” in the present tense; and not in the form of “nor be sad.” One might say, “and let not sadden,” and “nor be sad” are more or less equivalent. Fine, for the sake of putting the argument to rest, let us grant that to be the case. The question is: why state, use, or chose some words (or tenses) that are not in the Ayah, especially if corresponding words are available and are there for the taking? Improper choice of words, or tenses, could and would eventually lead to other bad choices that do make significant differences, if not dangerously change the meaning altogether.

C.2. the Ayah does not say: “you will be superior (in victory),” suggesting a future becoming (superior); and the Ayah totally does not state “in victory,” as the Ayah stands. The Ayah clearly says that they are (in the present tense) superior. Also, the Ayah says: “if you^c were believers,” plain, clear and without any further ado. This is Qur’an. There should be no unnecessary additions, deletions or alteration in it whatsoever, as that could /would, imply something else not intended.

C.3. Also, the Ayah does not say: “indeed (true)” as a qualification of the believers. The Ayah says: “if you^c were believers.” Why should anyone introduce, I should say interject, perhaps personal inferences or conjectures (especially of an interpretive nature) in the translation of The Qur’an, that are not in it?

39. Examples of Qur’anic texts translated to mean more or less same, when in fact they are profoundly different

A. The Qur’an is in Arabic. For a divine wisdom Allah (SWT)⁵⁴ bestowed His generosity and honored the Arabic language by making it the vehicle of His exalted Word. The Qur’an says that He made The Qur’an “Arabic Qur’an.” The relevant Ayah says:

﴿إِنَّا جَعَلْنَاهُ قُرْآنًا عَرَبِيًّا لَّعَلَّكُمْ تَعْقِلُونَ﴾ الزخرف:3

“Verily We made it^x Qur’an Arabic, perhaps you^b cerebrate you^z.” (S43:3)

- i). The above Ayah states that The Qur’an is made Arabic, i.e. it employs the Arabic language as its vehicle of expression, therefore:
 - (1) The linguistic meaning of The Qur’an is as the Arabs know it (including the implication, inference, connotation and denotation) of each word is the most paramount first step to consider and understand.
 - (2) Also, The Qur’an is primarily pronounced, read and written in Arabic.
 - (3) In addition to the plethoric supply (superabundance) of words of the Arabic language, each word shares many meanings with myriads of other words but only it uniquely represents the precise and exact specific meaning. No other word will suffice, as strictly speaking there are no synonym in The Qur’an.
 - (5) Reading of The Qur’an (in Arabic) is a “worship” in and of itself.
 - (6) That is why in the Prayer only Arabic recitation (reading) of The Qur’an is valid.
 - (7) For every single Arabic alphabet letter of The Qur’an the reader receives ten Hasanat (plural of Hasanah=reward for good deed). Each Hasanah stands for ten folds, according to the true Hadeeth.
- ii). The above Ayah received not so bad a translation, save some, who incorrectly translated it as “a Lecture in Arabic.” But the over-all picture is fine. May Allah reward those translators for doing their utmost when they translated whatever they did. I believe that was their best possible.

B. The Qur’an is in Arabic-tongue. Also, The Qur’an is descended in Arabic-tongue, i.e. it is expressed in the perspicuous (easy to understand and to clarify) “Arabic-tongue,” i.e. idiomatic Arabic. The Qur’an says:

﴿وَهَذَا لِسَانٌ عَرَبِيٌّ مُبِينٌ﴾ النحل:103

“While this (the diction of The Qur’an is) a tongue-Arabic manifester.” (S16:103)

⁵⁴ (SWT), meaning “The Existent” that is before and after the existence of life in this world. There is no word in English to convey such a meaning. So, my choice for “الحي” is “The Pre-and-Post Existence Existent” as closest to convey the message of such a great name.

- i). The above Ayah received also not so bad a translation, although those translations did, to a certain extent, miss slightly; as some did not say “Arabic tongue,” per se, and instead opted to say: it is Arabic “speech.” Yet, some others dropped the word “tongue” altogether and saw it fit to just say: “in Arabic.” This is Allah’s Speech. Therefore, when translating it, no addition or deletion to its text (by implication or inference) should be contemplated, let alone carried out, at all. Again we say may Allah forgive and reward those translators who unintentionally did what they did not mean to do or should not have done in the first place.
- ii). The above Ayah clearly states that The Qur’an is expressed in “tongue-Arabic,” an idea well elaborated-on in Section 12 above, but summarily restated:
 - (1) The sentence-constructs of The Qur’an are of the same general nature as the Arabs express themselves, but in a polished (improved) or designative (divinely specified) form.
 - (2) Its grammar, style, syntax, implications, inferences, connotations, and denotations all are inherent in its dictions.
 - (3) Thus, Arabic proverbs, similitudes, morals, ethics and the like would be elemental to it.
 - (4) Eloquence and elegance, brevity and terseness, homogeneity and rhyme for adornment and proportion righteous tradition and worthy legacy of Arabic all are hallmarks of its diction. Also, figuration and substitution analogy and parallelism, compensation and assimilation speech constructs would be ubiquitous in it. The aforementioned are but a few examples of how lofty and magnanimous, splendid and superb, the Qur’anic expression is. As stated earlier, put simply: it is beyond replication, even in Arabic let alone rendition into other languages.

Hence, for understanding The Qur’an (a) firstly priority is to be given to its linguistic meaning, inferences, and implications; secondly to its Arabic-tongue expressions, as explained earlier.

After that comes: (b) “Arabic-tongue” expression, see Section 12 above.

Next (c): “Arabic-rule,” as discussed in Subsection C, to follow.

And finally: (d) above all according to the Sha’rey’ah requirement.

C. The Qur’an is by Arabic-rule: Allah says that He sent down The Qur’an (harmonious with/ according to/ by) “Arabic rule.”

﴿أَنزَلْنَاهُ حُكْمًا عَرَبِيًّا﴾ الرعد: 37

“We descended it^x (by) Arabic rule⁵⁵. S13:37

By Arabic rule, it is meant following Arabic language rules of grammar and word-conjugation), the morality and wisdom of the Arabs as polished and improved by divine intervention. I must quickly add that morality and wisdom in terms of many aspects, such as:

- (1) Genealogical purity,
- (2) Chivalry and personal as well as family honors,
- (3) Loyalty to the sense of belonging,
- (4) Generosity towards others, especially hospitality to the guest (any stranger),
- (5) Strongly protective attitude towards the neighbor, and
- (6) Strongly protective attitude towards the wronged or the unjustly treated entity.

It is with respect to this Magnificent Ayah those other translators had unintentionally inadequately translated it, thereby they had missed greatly, and that is to say: under translated what needed better translation.

D. Last and most paramount are the Sha’rey’ah imperatives.

Clearly there are Sha’rey’ah imperatives that have precedence over all considerations, including A, B, and C above. Such precedence as represented by: Allah’s (SWT) prescriptions or proscriptions, or His Messenger’s (SAWS) directives. For example: the word “الحج” = the pilgrimage. In Arabic “الحج” = the pilgrimage, means the going to a particular place, any place, any time for any purpose. However, when used in terms of Sharey'ah it means going to: a (1) particular place, (2) at a particular time, (3) to perform particular (prescribed) rituals, and (4) in compliance to Allah's prescriptions and His Messenger's directives. So, now the word “الحج” carries a different meaning than its pure linguistic meaning.

The above three perspicuous and eloquent Ayat in A, B, and C state that The Qur'an is: (i) in Arabic; (ii) in Arabic-tongue, and (iii) by Arabic rule, i.e. (harmonious with/according to) Arabic language rules of grammar and word-conjugations.

Clearly, each of those three distinct expressions in (i), (ii), and (iii), has its specific meanings and implications. All other translators, unfortunately, do not make sufficient distinction in this respect, and thus do a great injustice, to the texts and their implications, as we shall show in the next Section 35. All Qur'anic expressions are exalted and eloquent, i.e. exceedingly dignified in form, style, and tone with respect to the diction. With respect to the meanings, they are highly packed but elegant, yet immutable and unique, i.e. very articulative, persuasive, fluent, precise and highly designative. However, those other translators, may Allah forgive and reward them plentifully, for one reason or another, hastily glossed over the distinctions among those all-beautiful and emphatically intended Qur'anic expressions and do not pause enough to see the significance of each, particularly (C), the “Arabic rule.” To this (i.e. “Arabic rule”), some put it: The Qur'an is “a decisive utterance in Arabic.” Another said that it is Qur'an “in Arabic and is a judgment of authority in Arabic.” Yet another said: “We revealed it as an Arabic legislation.” What an irrelevant admixture!

Such translations represent a monumental amiss of under sizing of those texts, if not outright unintentional misrepresentation. May Allah forgive those translators and reward them their good dues as they unintentionally did great injustice to the text of The Qur'an and missed the significant meanings and implications therein.

(iv) In addition to the aforementioned (i), (ii) and (iii) there is the Sunnah (statements/ actions of the Prophet, SAWS, or his approval of others' actions or statements), which complements and explains it, as discussed earlier in Section 30.

39. “Qur'an-Arabic, (by) Arabic-tongue, and (by) Arabic-rule.”

Meanings and implications are revisited

- A. The Qur'an says: “Verily We made it^x Qur'an Arabic”, meaning The Qur'an uses the Arabic language for its diction, inscription and recitation. That is such diction is rendered in Arabic words, in the most concise and precise of expressions according to the construct of Arabic grammar and word conjugation and how the Arabs understand the words.
- B. On the other hand, “While this (diction of The Qur'an is) a tongue-Arabic manifester” means employing the expressions of the Arabic language, i.e. the brevity associated with the clarity of meanings, styles of expression (including among other things, all the linguistic adornments or putting two words or more together and coming up with a meaning which neither words nor any word indicates). For example: “For Allah's face.” The meaning is neither Allah, nor face per se, but the pleasure of Allah. See Section 14 above.
- C. However, “We descended it^x (by) Arabic rule” means according to the Arabic language rules of grammar and word-conjugation, as well as the pristine morality associated with Time proven of myriads of hallmarks such as: purity of personal genealogy, faithful guardianship of the integrity of personal family honor (maternal and paternal all around), hospitality towards the guest, care and guardianship of the neighbor, succoring and rendering justice to the wronged, and many other moral high-grounds. To really appreciate the concept of “Arabic rule,” it is imperative to review what does “Arabic rule” mean? It means many lofty and splendid things, among them besides the linguistics (not inclusively by any means) are the following:

- (i) The definition of Arabic wisdom, which is the knowledgeable and sound placement as well as use of things in their proper place and function to produce the best immediate and ultimate results.
- (ii) After that comes ruling by Arabic wisdom, meaning a ruling must be balanced, fair, and must appear (as perceived by others) to be balanced and fair at all times.
- (iii) After that is the application of Arabic wisdom, that is adhering to the elements of such wisdom. The elements of such wisdom are numerous; however, we shall cite just seven examples, for the sake of brevity and illustration:
 - (a) Strictly defending honor, i.e. personal, family, neighborly, tribal, community, or country.
 - (b) Rigorously preserving personal genealogical purity.
 - (c) Uncompromising generosity and hospitality, in their “barren” desert. This conduct on their part is an environmental necessity, as any one of them could be the next recipient of such a generosity and hospitality.
 - (d) Faithfully guarding personal chivalry, and independence.
 - (e) Constantly displaying personal courage.
 - (f) Closely adhering to personal allegiance of kind.
 - (h) Strongly observing disciplined freedom coupled with justice to all, especially the poor and defenseless. This very element was the impelling force behind the pre-Islamic “Helf-Al-Fadbool,” Alliance for paternalizing The Aggrieved, explained in Section 38 to follow later.

40. Myriads of Arabic rules get purified, polished, improved, and ordained through the garment of Islam

As stated earlier, Section 24 above, Allah had karrama (He had bestowed bounty and honor on) the Arabs and their language, and Allah does whatever He wants. This takreem (bestowal of bounty and honor) is multifold, only Allah knows its limits. However, the fact is that this language, perhaps it's the mother of most if not all modern languages, reached the zenith of maturity, became great, lofty, and splendid, just before the dawn of Islam. Still this language received divine uplift, elevating it even further to an unmatchable status, to become and remain unique forever, by being the vehicle of Allah's written Speech for the entire human race, the Jinn and all creatures till the Day of Judgment. Clearly, it was divine work that it was nurtured and refined (to make it suitable for Allah's Message), polished, further improved, and ordained through the garment of Islam and its perfect and impeccable Share'ah Laws, Allah's revealed Faith. Hence, Arabic rule includes Arabic heritage (legacy) and its very rich tradition and how all come to apply.

41. The Arabic language is unique, as it is perfectly: descriptive, connotative, denotative, designative, eloquent and elegant

The Arabic language is unique, with superabundance of words. Thus, it is perfectly: terse, laconic, descriptive, connotative, denotative, designative, yet eloquent and elegant. Hence, it is not possible to find corresponding words in other languages to match or even come close to all the Arabic words. Adding to the enormity of the situation is when one is to translate “Share'yah terms,” that are divinely revealed and have specific Share'yah meanings in addition to their linguistic meanings, the task multiplies in enormity. Therefore, there is a strong and a definite need for transliteration with: (a) as best as possible parenthetical explanation of the transliterated word and (b) footnotes explanations as needed. Allah's words cannot be dealt with neither lightly or subjectively at all. That is because the same word, phrase, or Ayah in due course of time, will assume a newer and different meaning than its current one, yet remaining correct all along. This further proves the case that The Qur'an is absolutely the word of Allah. Also, there are words that have several meanings and all apply at different contexts. Additionally, there are times for paradoxical words, where a single word has a particular meaning and its exact opposite, in the Arabic language and so is in The Qur'an, which contains myriads of such words; clearly the context determines the intended meaning.

Also Arabic diction, especially the Qura'nic or the Hadeeth ones, depicts marvelous portraits, as each word in its proper place precisely, lively and laconically represents an angle of such a portrait; and no other word will do to replace it. Let us take one example from The Qur'an, which contains multitudes and multitudes of words that seem to be synonyms, as they share one or more of the various aspects of a certain meaning, but in reality each depicts a specific meaning no other does it. There are no synonyms in The Qur'an.

1. غاب = لم ير بالعين السوية لأي سبب
2. إختفى = لم ير بالعين السوية من حيث أنه لا يعرف مكانه
3. توارى = غاب الى الخلف عن حياء أو خجل
4. خنس = غاب عن ذلة و هوان
5. غرب = غاب في مكان بعيد
6. استتر = غاب و راء حجاب خوفاً أو خجلاً
7. وقب = دخل قليلاً قليلاً حتى حجب الرؤية بالظلام.
8. أفل = غاب لمعانه أو غابت شهرته أو شأنه

As can be seen each of the above mentioned words, although seemingly synonymous with the others, each is a specific portrait, depicting a picture by itself, any other cannot do in its place, if they were to be interchanged. Other languages, English included, do not possess such precise words. Despite all that we must do our utmost efforts to approximate as close as possible the diction of The Qur'an, as such effort is an imperative duty, Islam constantly urges us to do all the time: "Let-invite [you^s] to your^t Lord's path by the hek-ma'te^w (wisdom)^w and the exhortation^w [the] hasanatey^w (good-deed)^w; and let-argue [you^s] (with) them by which^u it^w (is) ahsano (excellenter)^w"; (S16:125). Based on the afore-mentioned, it is clear that transliteration is a necessity.

42. Translating the unique Qur'anic diction or the matchless Hadeeth parlance to any other language, the other language must be supplemented by transliteration and superscription of many words, especially the pronouns and the conjunctive nouns

Clearly based on all the aforesaid, especially Sections 34-41 above, in order to exactly convey the highly exalted diction of The Qur'an or the truly esteemed Hadeeth, i.e. conveying both in their Arabic sense and flavor, including the linguistic (idiomatic) expressions, and that is by feminizing the feminine and masculinizing the masculine. This clearly calls for originality/innovation to play a role, as other languages will not be able to encompass the unique language of The Qur'an or the matchless Hadeeth parlance both are in the loftiest of expressions. Unlike English, whose words are neutral, save a very short list of words and pronouns, words in Arabic are either masculine gender or a feminine gender. So for all the aforesaid, English must be supplemented by: (1) transliteration and (2) superscription of the respective words, assigning specificity, and thus assuring removal of any possible ambiguity of reference or the word's gender. For example:

Transliteration: The word "بعل" = "ba'al^x" = (owner/ lord/ master/ husband)^x, or idol. No single English word could convey the various meanings of "ba'al^x" per se. So transliteration is a must.

Superscription of pronoun and the conjunctive nouns. For example: The addressee pronoun "you" in English could stand for a single individual, masculine or feminine, or for the plural masculine or feminine. In Arabic the form for each of the aforesaid is different. So you, with a superscript^s=you^s stands for the singular, masculine addressee; whereas you with a superscript^f=you^f stands for the plural masculine addressees. In Arabic earth is a feminine gender, day is a masculine gender. So earth is superscribed with a ^w, such as earth^w, and day gets to be superscribed by an ^x, such as day^x. Unlike English, in Arabic sun is a feminine gender, whereas moon is a masculine gender. Hence, sun = sun^w and moon = moon^x. See the short table of the superscribed words (less than two [dozens] and are repetitive so they will be easily remembered and recognized). See the Prelude attached to this Translation.

And now a word about the Arabs in Section 43 next.

Exception to the rule: The suffix pronoun “ﻟﻪ” for the singular, plural or the speaker’s aggrandizement in Arabic does not exist in English. So to avoid being/sounding too verbose, pedantic or awkward the word “we” will be used to approximate for “ﻟﻪ”.

43. By dawn of Islam, the Arabs were miraculously transformed to spearhead Allah-perfected religion for worldwide application

Before the dawn of Islam, the Arabs were nomadic, tribal, and largely unlettered. However, honor, courage, chivalry, independence, and genealogical purity were and continue to be most paramount in their culture and heritage.

They engaged each other in endless chain of blood feuds and tribal wars. These wars took the form of frequent raids against one tribe and another. This way, the life of an Arab was that of a “warrior”.

They were pagans, but their minds with respect to divine religion were “open” to influence. In the language of present day “Western culture” is a “tabula rasa.”⁵⁶

They were most hospitable, isolated, and led meager lives in their Arabian Peninsula, largely unaffected (i.e. uncorrupted) by other civilizations.

Although the Arabs were unlettered, they were remarkably poetic. They possessed most remarkable memories. They could hear a one hundred line poem for the first time and critique it immediately thereafter, i.e. right after hearing, line by line, all from memory. Periodically they gathered from all parts of their peninsula around the Ka’abah. The gathering was presumably to perform pilgrimage. However, it was also to boast about their poetry with respect to their rivals. This gave them higher prestige.

Prior to the dawn of Islam, Quraysh⁵⁷ was the most preeminent and supreme tribe among them. Quraysh was the “Guardian of the Ka’abah,” the Sacred Sanctuary. It is this sanctuary that Prophet Abraham raised, not established (as mistakenly presumed by some). The sanctuary already existed in Macca long before Prophet Abraham came to it. After Allah had honored Mohammad (SAWS) and chose him as His Messenger and Prophet to the humans and the Jinn alike, the Arabs were miraculously transformed so as to become the spearhead of Allah perfected world-religion. Thereafter, the Arabs spearheaded the establishing of an unmatched human civilization, the like of which there never was nor could ever be, as shall become self-evident in the following pages. The astonishing fact is how could those Arabs, as described above, achieve such high level of human civilization? The truth is: it is not the Arabs but the religion they were chosen to spearhead which, in fact, made the difference. There is no better evidence in favor of this argument than the following facts. Time and again the Muslims were the vanguards and leaders of human civilization for centuries,⁵⁸ when they adhered to their religion faithfully. However, when they were less than sincere in the observance of their religion, that is, when most Muslims became lax in the practice of their faith, their civilization ebbed, as shown time and again in various historical eras.

However, Islamic Civilization never died, nor will it ever die, like other civilizations that had dawned, rose, fell and became extinct. Now Islamic Civilization is on the verge of a great revival. But unlike in the past, when Islam covered half of the then known world, this time it shall, Allah willing, cover the entire globe. As at the present there is not a country on the face of the globe where Islam is not embraced in it in masses voluntarily.

Islam is a religion that defends itself against all its enemies. The only requirement is to have those “enemies” be exposed to it by any reasonable means. Once they study it, they will voluntarily embrace it, provided they are rational, i.e. not highly subjective or stubborn. Obviously, stubbornness is a subjective and blind biasness. History provides many examples, ⁵⁶ A Lockeanism concept.

⁵⁷ Messenger and Prophet Mohammad (SAWS) is a descendent of this tribe, Quraish.

⁵⁸ That is over a thousand year, more or longer than any other people in the history of humanity.

where the “enemies” of Islam came, fought the Muslims, and they were victorious. Nevertheless, eventually they entered into Islam turned around and defended it. That is the nature of Islam. As an illustrative example of the societal system of living of the Arabs before Islam, Helf Al-Fadhol, Alliance for Paternalizing the Aggrieved, is cited as a sample.⁵⁹

44. Helf al-Fadhol, Alliance for Paternalizing the Aggrieved

During the pre-Islamic era, honor, courage, chivalry, independence, genealogical purity, the sense of justice, right and wrong all that led many of the notable Arabs to forbid on themselves the most coveted alcoholic beverage as well as fornication and adultery. However, the constant feuds and raids among the various Arab-tribes before Islam, led to some thing rather phenomenal. The fact is the Arabs could not manage to accept each other’s military defeats without bitterness, engendering future malice. This sense of bitterness prompted the leaders of various tribes, led by Quraysh, the guardian of the sacred sanctuary of the Ka’abah at Macca, to decide and establish what is known as “Helf Al-Fadhol,” Al-Fadhoool-Alliance. The main mission of this alliance was to paternalize (father) the unfairly aggrieved and the defenseless. Based on rational principles of justice, the Alliance established the rule that people, as individuals or groups, have “inalienable right” to be respected and treated in a “fair” way, and that these rights extend to every individual or group, especially those who cannot afford them or afford them the least. Therefore, a wronged person or group can go to Macca and give an account of the injustice they suffered, as well as of those who were responsible for it, to the aforesaid “Alliance.” Without delay, the “Alliance” would then marshal and proceed to restore to the victims of injustice their due rights, no matter how much of a personage the perpetrator might have been. This makes it clear that this “Alliance” was many steps ahead of the selective, if not fraudulent, modern concept of human rights or the United Nations. Since it holds human rights inviolable, in theory and in practice alike, the “Alliance” ensures the application of its supreme principles and make sure that those who violate them will be punished according to the established norms of rightness and fairness.

Indeed, it is not unreasonable to say that modern humanity is yet to reach such level of universal “paternity” for all the unfairly aggrieved peoples. No wonder that the Messenger of Islam (SAWS) said, in a true Hadeeth, that if he were to be called for such an alliance he would have responded positively, i.e. participated in it.

After the aforementioned brief statements about the Arabic language, the Arabs, and Helf al-Fadhol, Alliance for Paternalizing the Aggrieved, Allah willing, we are now ready to proceed with our work of translating The Qur’an to English and also of developing a *Lexicon*⁶⁰ for it as we go along.

May Allah show us His Right Path, grant us His Assistance, in speed, accuracy, and all related aspects of this work, and bless our work, and accept it purely for His pleasure. May Allah make this translation most useful to and beneficial for all Muslims as well as potential Muslims all over the world, in fact to all of mankind.

Abdulaziz Fahad Al Mubarak

Finished by Allah’s munificence and divine-guidance; my praises and thanks to Him.

Note No.1

Allah commands the believers to cooperate for the common good. He says:

...and let-cooperate you^z on the berre (just and proper by Sharey’ah) and the taqwa (the reverential guarding against Allah’s displeasure); S5:2.

⁵⁹ There are others but Helf Al-Fadhoool is very conspicuous and well known.

⁵⁵ Constantly applauded and referred to by various groups for their own selective purposes.

⁵⁶ This Lexicon is necessary for special terminology of unique diction of The Qur’na and the matchless Hadeeth parlance.

For many years I have been publicizing in my private and public speeches and discussions in the U.S. in Europe and the Arab countries about my:

Textual Translation of The Qur'an The Supreme

And that anyone able to improve the precision and exactitude of my translation, I shall pray for him/her and I am ready and willing to pay him/her up to ten thousands U.S. dollars ($10,000.00) per hour for his/her time. So far no takers!

Note No.2

We must point out that a translation of The Qur'an is not Qur'an, and is not fit to recite such a translation in the Prayer, even if such a translation was rendered in Arabic. The Qur'an is the diction in original Arabic as revealed by Allah through Arch Angel Gabriel to/on Allah's Great Messenger, Mohammad (SAWS).

Note No.3

With respect to the translation of The Qur'an, there is the verbatim translation of the text of The Qur'an, which is doable with patience, perseverance, diligence and innovation. In addition to that there is the divine style/mode of expression associated with The Qur'an. Such divine style is undoable by any human. It is Allah's style and Allah's alone.
